Mike Tomlin Bio

MIKE TOMLIN was named the 16th head coach in Pittsburgh Steelers history on Jan. 22, 2007. Hired at the age of 34, Tomlin became only the third head coach hired by the Steelers since 1969.

Tomlin became the youngest head coach in NFL history to both coach in and win a Super Bowl when he led the Steelers to a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII. By winning the Super Bowl in only his second season as a head coach, he also became the fastest to win a Super Bowl title in Steelers' history.

Tomlin is one of only seven coaches in league history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as an NFL head coach. Tomlin is the only head coach in Steelers history to lead the team to two Super Bowls in his first four seasons at the helm, including an appearance against the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XLV. He is one of only two Steelers' head coaches to win three division titles in his first four seasons.

Tomlin has compiled a 43-21 record in the regular season during his four-year head coaching career. His .672 winning percentage in his first four seasons is tied for the best in team history with former coach Bill Cowher. In 2010, Tomlin became only the second Steelers' head coach to win at least 10 games in three of his first four seasons.

The Steelers were dominant on the road in 2010, finishing with a 7-1 regular season record away from Heinz Field. Tomlin's seven road wins during the regular season tied a Steelers record previously set in 1978 and again in 2004.

The Steelers finished second in total defense under Tomlin's guidance in 2010, allowing only 276.8 yards per game. Pittsburgh led the NFL and set a team record in rushing defense, yielding only 62.8 yards per game (1,004 yards), the third-best total in NFL history dating back to 1970. The Steelers also established an NFL record in 2010 by not allowing an opponent to rush for more than 75 yards in any of their first eight games during regular the season.

In all, the Steelers defense led the NFL in 2010 in rushing defense, points allowed (232), touchdowns (22), quarterback sacks (48), rushing average (3.0), yards per play (4.5) and yards allowed on first down (4.08). It finished second in the league in passing average (6.31), turnover advantage (+14) and red-zone efficiency (40.0, tied). Pittsburgh's offense finished the 2010 season ranked 14th in the league (11th rushing, 14th passing).

Under Tomlin, the Steelers broke new ground on offense in 2009. Pittsburgh's offense ranked seventh in the NFL (ninth passing, 19th rushing) but became the first unit in team history to boast a 4,000-yard passer, two 1,000-yard receivers and a 1,000-yard rusher in the same season. Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL (third vs. run, 16th vs. pass) while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 quarterback sacks.

The Steelers continued to be dominant at Heinz Field under Tomlin in 2009. Pittsburgh finished with a 6-2 home record in 2009 after finishing 7-1 (2007) and 6-2 (2008) at home during Tomlin's first two seasons. Tomlin's 24-8 record and .750 winning percentage at home after four seasons ranks second in Steelers' history.

Tomlin finished the 2008 season with a 12-4 record and his second consecutive AFC North Division title, becoming the only Steelers head coach to win division crowns in each of his first two seasons. He also set a record with 22 regular-season wins in his first two years at the helm and is the only Steelers head coach to win at least 10 games in each of his first two seasons. Tomlin's .688 winning percentage (22-10) after two years is the best in Steelers' history.

The Steelers' defense was dominant under Tomlin's guidance in 2008, leading the NFL in total defense (237.2), pass defense (156.9), points per game (13.9), total yards per play (3.9), rushing yards per attempt (3.3), passing yards per attempt (4.7) and third down efficiency (31.4), and finished second in league rushing defense (80.3).

Tomlin began his head coaching career by becoming only the second Steelers' head coach to win his first three games. During 2007, the Steelers became just the fifth team in NFL history to win their first four home games by at least 20 points.

Tomlin led the Steelers to a 10-6 record in 2007, and became just the second coach in team history to post a winning record, win a division title and earn a playoff berth in his inaugural season.

Tomlin guided the Steelers to the NFL's top-ranked defense in 2007, yielding only 266.4 yards per game. The Steelers' defense ranked third in the NFL against both the run (89.9 avg.) and pass (176.5 avg.), and also finished third in the league in total yards allowed per play (4.6). Pittsburgh's defense led the NFL in passing yards per play (5.7) and first downs allowed per game (15.6), and finished second in the league in points allowed per game (16.8).

The Steelers' offense finished third in the NFL in rushing (135.5 avg.) during Tomlin's first season, sparked by RB Willie Parker who led the league in rushing before injuring his leg in Week 16. QB Ben Roethlisberger enjoyed a record-setting season during Tomlin's first year, establishing new team records for touchdown passes (32) and passer rating (104.1), while earning his first career Pro Bowl appearance. In 2007, the Steelers held the advantage in time of possession in 14-of-16 regular season games.

Tomlin was the NFL's second-youngest head coach in 2007, and he became only the second Steelers coach in team history to win at least 10 games during his first year at the helm. The Steelers posted a 7-1 record at home in 2007 and were 5-1 in the AFC North (3-0 at home).

Tomlin spent the 2006 season as the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator. Under Tomlin in 2006, the Vikings ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and first against the run while not allowing a 100-yard rusher the entire season.

Tomlin was the defensive backs coach from 2001-05 with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In 2002, Tomlin guided one of the most productive defensive backfields in the NFL, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four of the team's five interceptions, returning two for touchdowns to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title.

Before joining Tampa Bay's staff, Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-00). He took over a secondary that ranked 111th in the nation in pass defense in 1998 and helped them improve to 61st overall in his first season. Under Tomlin's direction in 2000, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State where he coached wide receivers in 1997 before switching to defensive backs in 1998. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, where he worked with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. He began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William and Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,046 yards and a school-record 20 TD catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2 yards-per-catch average.

Steelers Post-Game Quotes

Head Coach Mike Tomlin:

Re: Coming back from deficit and what that says about the team:
We're not into moral victories. We came here to win the football game, of course, and we didn't do that. Green Bay did and we congratulate them.

Re: His mindset was going into the final drive having been in the position before:
It was just that, not anything emotional to be honest with you. We were just looking at the scenario - 1:59, I think, and a timeout and a bunch of grass. We've been in that situation a bunch. We practice that situation a bunch. Quite frankly, we're probably fully capable of executing it but we didn't and a lot of that had to do with Green Bay's execution.

Re: Turnovers:
It was a factor in the game but usually when you're in a game like this it's because of the execution of the opponents. We realize that the defense they had an opportunity to create turnovers and put themselves in poor position in this game and Green Bay did that.

Re: Aaron Rodger:
He made plays. We didn't get turnovers. We know that they're capable of getting plays in chunks. We knew that they would throw the football quite a bit and they did. He didn't fold under the pressure. I thought we hit him some early, we got to him as the game went on. But he showed his metal and continued to stand in there and throw the football and throw it accurately. I tip my hat to him for that.

Re: Packers' depth at WR:
We weren't surprised by that.

Re: Hoping for a turnover:
We were just trying to make a play in any of the three phases to win the football game.

Re: Packers getting short field to move the ball:
Well, the short field was created by turnovers.

Re: Long third-down conversion for the Packers:
As I sit here, I can't remember that one specifically. There were several of those type plays and there always are in a game like this.

Re: Ben Roethlisberger's performance:
It was a losing one, just like mine.

Re: The turf being an issue:
They played on the same turf that we played on. We're not in the business of making excuses. We won't do it. Next question.

Re: Not using timeouts:
You know, I am sure there are going to be many instances where we can look back at this game and wish that we had done things differently, and I am at the front of that line. I'm not going to dispute any of those suggestions.

Re: Confidence on the final drive:
Whenever there's time on the clock and we're inside of a one score game, I feel pretty confident that we're capable of doing the job.

Re: Having confidence to make plays against the Packers:
I did. At times we did. They made plays, guys. It's probably less about what we were unable to do and more about what they were able to do. Such is the case in the greatest game in this game. We can sit here and make excuses, you guys can and I will not. What I will do is say that Green Bay played a really good football game and made the necessary plays to be World Champs, that's what I will say.

Re: Playing better than the last time the two teams played:
I can't remember the '09 game at this point. There's a lot of grass between that '09 game and today.

Re: Tough to play against Rodgers:
I would imagine he's better equipped to answer that that I am. I just acknowledge that he was.

Re: LaMarr Woodley:
I thought Woodley had a heck of a ballgame. I thought he applied pressure off our left edge the majority of the game. I'm not willing to concede that he didn't play winning football.

Re: "Never say die" attitude:
These guys are pros and competitors. I expect them to do that.

Re: Troy Polamalu's performance:
He's probably better equipped to answer that and I am sure a guy like Troy will be around to answer that.

Re: Taking advantage of Charles Woodson's injury:
We had injuries, they had injuries. We had a plan, they had a plan. We tried to execute ours, they executed theirs better than ours. I don't know how much of a factor that was.

Re: Packers taking Troy out of the game:
He was on the field. They made plays.

Did Troy have an impact?
I'll let you be the judge.

Re: Officiating:
I thought the officials did a really good job largely. With 160 to 180 plays in a football game you can talk about instances but I thought largely, Referee Walt Anderson and his crew did a really good job in this football game.

Re: Halftime message:
It wasn't anything out of the ordinary. We created the bed we had to lay in it a little bit. We had to ball our fists up a little tighter. I thought the group did that but we fell up short.

Re: Thought process on kicking the field goal:
That was a terrible decision by me. In hindsight it wasn't even close. We made the field goal in pregame and he kicked the ball well going in that direction. I took a calculated shot at it and failed. But no judgment on K Shaun Suisham. This guy has been everything that we've asked him to be. We picked him up along the way this season and he's one of the reasons that we're here. I appreciate his willingness to go out there under the circumstances that I put him in.

Re: Penalties and turnovers:
Usually when you lose it's because of penalties and turnovers.

Re: Momentum before Mendenhall's fumble:
Yeah but I felt pretty good after the Mendenhall fumble too at different points in the game.

Re: Third-down throw to Greg Jennings:
That ball down the middle of the field to Jennings late in the contest, that's big time.

Re: Roethlisberger and Wallace's performance:
Again, in instances it was dang good and in instances of course it was below the line; one of the many reasons why we fell up short.

STEELERS POSTSEASON INFORMATION

Steelers' Postseason Notes:

• The Steelers are 33-21 (.611) in the postseason, including a 20-10 record at home, a 7-9 mark on the road and a 6-2 record at neutral sites (Super Bowls IX, X, XIII, XIV, XXX, XL, XLIII and XLV).

• The Steelers have played in the Super Bowl in three of the past six years and two of the past three. The eight trips to the Super Bowl are tied for the most in NFL history with the Dallas Cowboys. The Steelers' six wins in the Super Bowl are the most in league history.

• Pittsburgh is 6-2 in Super Bowls.

• The following is a look at Pittsburgh's Super Bowl history:

Date	Opponent	Result	Site
1/12/75	Minnesota Vikings	W, 16-6	New Orleans, La.
1/18/76	Dallas Cowboys	W, 21-17	Miami, Fla.
1/21/79	Dallas Cowboys	W, 35-31	Miami, Fla.
1/20/80	L.A. Rams	W, 31-19	Pasadena, Calif.
1/28/96	Dallas Cowboys	L, 17-27	Tempe, Ariz.
2/5/06	Seattle Seahawks	W, 21-10	Detroit, Mich.
2/1/09	Arizona Cardinals	W, 27-23	Tampa, Fla.
2/6/11	Green Bay Packers	L, 25-31	Arlington, Texas

• Head Coach Mike Tomlin is only the second coach in NFL history to reach two Super Bowls in his first four seasons as a head coach (Joe Gibbs - Washington Redskins).

• The Steelers are 5-2 during the Mike Tomlin era in the postseason.

• The Steelers have played in 54 playoff games, which is second all-time behind Dallas (58).

• Pittsburgh has won nine of its last 11 postseason games.

• The Steelers captured the AFC North Division title for fourth time since divisions were re-aligned in 2002.

• Mike Tomlin is the youngest coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl. Following is a look at the youngest head coaches in Super Bowl history:

Season	Coach	Team	Yrs.	Days
2008	Mike Tomlin	Pittsburgh	36	323
1995	Bill Cowher	Pittsburgh	38	265
1968	Don Shula	Baltimore	39	8
2002	Jon Gruden	Tampa Bay	39	162
1967	John Rauch	Oakland	40	147

 Age on Feb. 1, 2009*

• Mike Tomlin became just the seventh coach in NFL history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as head coach. Following is a look at the seven coaches who have won a Super Bowl within their first two seasons:

Season	Coach	Team	Season
2008	Mike Tomlin	Pittsburgh Steelers	2nd
2000	Brian Billick	Baltimore Ravens	2nd
1995	Barry Switzer	Dallas Cowboys	2nd
1989	George Siefert	San Francisco 49ers	1st
1982	Joe Gibbs	Washington Redskins	2nd
1980	Tom Flores	Oakland Raiders	2nd
1971	Don McCafferty	Baltimore Colts	2nd

• The announced crowd of 66,662 at the 2010 AFC Championship Game was the largest crowd in Steelers' history.

• The Steelers won the AFC Central title a team-record six consecutive seasons from 1974-79. They also won four consecutive division titles from 1994-97.

• The Steelers won a team-record seven consecutive postseason games, including two Super Bowls (IX and X), from Dec. 22, 1974 through Dec. 19, 1976. They won six consecutive postseason games from Dec. 30, 1978 through Jan. 20, 1980, including victories in Super Bowls XIII and XIV.

• The Steelers have been shut out only once in the postseason, during the 1947 Eastern Division Playoff game, Dec. 21, 1947, versus the Philadelphia Eagles. The Steelers and Eagles finished that season with 8-4 records and tied for first place in the Eastern Division. In those days, there was only one NFL Championship Game, so the two Pennsylvania neighbors squared off for the right to face the Chicago Cardinals in the Championship Game. The Eagles won, 21-0, but lost in the Championship Game, 28-21, to the Cardinals, the same franchise the Steelers faced in Super Bowl XLIII.

• The Steelers record for fewest points allowed in a playoff game is five, during a 34-5 win in the 1978 AFC Championship Game versus the Houston Oilers at Three Rivers Stadium, Jan. 7, 1979. The Steelers allowed a team-high 45 points during a 45-28 AFC Championship Game road loss to the Miami Dolphins Jan. 6, 1985.

• Pittsburgh has faced 22 different teams in the postseason and has a winning record against 12 of those opponents. The Steelers have split their postseason contests with two teams and have a losing record versus eight teams.

• The Steelers rank among the most successful teams in the NFL in the postseason. Pittsburgh is first with 20 division titles since 1970, is tied for third in consecutive playoff victories, and is second in total playoff berths since 1970.

TEAM NOTES

AFC North Division Champions: Pittsburgh captured the AFC North Division championship after its Week 17 victory over the Cleveland Browns. It marked the Steelers' 20th division title, the most in the NFL since the merger in 1970.

Head Coach Mike Tomlin has won the AFC North title in three of his first four years.

Run Stuffers: The Steelers shattered the team record for rushing yards/game allowed in 2010 by giving up just 62.8 yards per game. The previous mark was 74.7 rushing yards/game set in 2001.

The Steelers ranked first in the league and allowed a season-low 30 yards rushing in Week 8 at New Orleans.

The following is a look at the top five yards/game rushing defenses in team history, including this year's 62.8 average:

Year	Avg./Game
2010	62.8
2001	74.7
2008	80.3
2004	81.2
1997	82.4

Additionally, the Steelers' rush defense finished as one of the best since the NFL merger. The following is a list of the NFL's top five rush defenses (since 1970):

Year	Team	Rushing Yds. Allowed/Game
2000	Baltimore Ravens	60.6 yds./game
2006	Minnesota Vikings	61.6 yds./game
2010	Pittsburgh Steelers	62.8 yds./game
1995	San Francisco 49ers	66.3 yds./game
1994	Minnesota Vikings	68.1 yds./game

Swarming Defense: The Steelers put on a defensive showcase in 2010 by leading the NFL in at least eight categories.

The following is a look at some of the impressive defensive statistics the Steelers compiled in 2010:

Category	Statistic	NFL Rk.
Total Points Allowed	232	1st
Touchdowns Allowed	22	1st
Total Sacks	48	1st
Total Rushing Yards Allowed	1,004	1st
Rushing Yards Allowed/Game	62.8	1st

Red-Zone Efficiency	40.0	T-2nd
Total Takeaways	35	T-3rd
Fumbles Recovered	14	T-5th
Interceptions	21	T-5th

Making A Point: The Steelers were the first team in NFL history to hold their opponents to 75 or fewer rushing yards in each of their first eight games of a season in 2010.

Pittsburgh has allowed only one 100-yard rusher in the past 50 regular-season games. RB Ray Rice had 141 yards in Week 16 of 2009 to snap a previous streak of 32 straight games without allowing a 100-yard rusher.

The following is a look at how opponents fared in rushing yards in 2010, comparing what the teams were averaging coming into the game against Pittsburgh and what the Steelers allowed in the contest:

Team (Week)	Rushing Yards/Game Entering Game	Rushing Yards vs. Steelers
Atlanta (Week 1)	—	58 yds.
Tennessee (Week 2)	202.0 yds.	46 yds.
Tampa Bay (Week 3)	119.0 yds.	75 yds.
Baltimore (Week 4)	89.0 yds.	70 yds.
Bye Week (Week 5)	—	—
Cleveland (Week 6)	102.8 yds.	70 yds.
Miami (Week 7)	115.6 yds.	64 yds.
New Orleans (Week 8)	92.6 yds.	30 yds.
Cincinnati (Week 9)	101.0 yds.	54 yds.
New England (Week 10)	107.1 yds.	103 yds.
Oakland (Week 11)	162.2 yds.	61 yds.
Buffalo (Week 12)	113.7 yds.	70 yds.
Baltimore (Week 13)	114.4 yds.	43 yds.
Cincinnati (Week 14)	92.3 yds.	34 yds.
New York Jets (Week 15)	143.7 yds.	106 yds.
Carolina (Week 16)	116.8 yds.	74 yds.
Cleveland (Week 17)	106.9 yds.	43 yds.

Turning Up the Heat: Since 1994, the Steelers have led the AFC in sacks six times and the entire NFL three times, including in 2010. Since 2004, the Steelers have the most sacks in the NFL with 309.

The Steelers led the NFL with 48 sacks in 2010, including a season-high six in Week 11 versus Oakland. In 2009, the Steelers finished with 47 sacks, ranking first in the AFC and second in the NFL.

Sacks became an official NFL statistic in 1982, however, a record of "passers tackled" was kept prior to that time. Following are the Steelers' single-season sack totals dating back to 1970:

Pittsburgh Steelers Team Sack Totals (Since 1970)

* Team Record

Imposing Their Will: The Steelers averaged 120.3 rushing yards per game in 2010, which ranked seventh in the AFC and 11th in the NFL.

The Steelers outrushed 14 of 16 opponents in 2010, averaging nearly 60 more yards on the ground than their opponents.

Pittsburgh has achieved this success despite having a number of injuries to the offensive line. On the year, the Steelers started five different combinations on the offensive line. Only RT Flozell Adams started every game through Super Bowl XLV.

Holding Their Ground: Over the past 10 years, Pittsburgh's defense has been among the best at holding its opponents to the fewest rushing yards in the league. The Steelers allowed just 961 yards rushing in 2010, an average of only 62.8 yards per game. That average ranked first in the NFL.

In 2009, the Steelers gave up 89.9 yards per game on the ground, which was first in the AFC and third in the NFL. Additionally, since 1994 the Steelers have led the AFC in rushing defense nine times and the entire NFL four times.

In the past eight seasons, Pittsburgh has allowed an NFL-low nine 100-yard rushers. Baltimore is second with 17.

Following is a look at the number of yards rushing the Steelers have allowed in each of the past 10 seasons:

Year	Rushing Yds. Allowed	Avg./Game	AFC/NFL Rank
2001	1,195	74.7	1st/1st
2002	1,375	85.9	1st/1st
2003	1,741	108.8	8th/12th
2004	1,299	81.2	1st/1st
2005	1,376	85.5	3rd/3rd
2006	1,412	88.2	2nd/3rd
2007	1,438	89.9	2nd/3rd
2008	1,284	80.3	1st/2nd
2009	1,438	89.9	1st/3rd
2010	1,004	62.8	1st/1st
Total	13,562	84.8	1st/1st

Defense! Defense! Defense!: Pittsburgh allowed 276.8 yards of total offense in 2010, which ranked second in the AFC and in the NFL. The Steelers allowed a season-low 119 yards to Carolina in Week 16.

The Steelers allowed just 1,004 rushing yards (62.8 avg.) for the 2010 season. Pittsburgh snapped RB Chris Johnson's 12-game streak of rushing for over 100 yards as it limited him to 34 yards on 16 carries (2.1 avg.) in the Week 2 victory at Tennessee. The Steelers finished with seven takeaways (four fumbles, three interceptions) against the Titans.

Defensive Dominance: The Steelers gave up just 232 points in 2010, which ranked first in the AFC and in the NFL.

The Steelers have allowed the fewest points in the NFL since the beginning of the 2007 season. Pittsburgh has allowed just 1,048 points during that span.

The following is a list of the top four teams in the NFL who have allowed the fewest points since the start of the 2007 campaign:

Team	Points Allowed
Pittsburgh	1,048
Baltimore	1,159
New England	1,181
Indianapolis	1,255

Gimme The Ball: The Steelers tallied 35 takeaways in 2010, which ranked second in the AFC and third (tied) in the NFL.

Pittsburgh posted seven takeaways in its Week 2 victory at the Tennessee Titans. The seven takeaways are the most by the Steelers since they had seven (four interceptions, three fumbles) on Nov. 9, 1997 against Baltimore.

Against the Titans, S Troy Polamalu, CB Bryant McFadden and LB LaMarr Woodley each had an interception while the Steelers also recovered four fumbles.

The Steelers ranked second in the AFC and second in the NFL with a plus-17 (+17) turnover advantage (35 takeaways, 18 giveaways).

Picking Your Poison: The Steelers had 21 interceptions on the year, including a team-best seven by S Troy Polamalu.

The Steelers finished the season with 21 interceptions, the most by the team since 1996 when they had 23.

Pittsburgh posted three interceptions (LB LaMarr Woodley, Polamalu - 2) in its Week 14 victory over the Cincinnati Bengals, including two returned for touchdowns (one each for Polamalu and Woodley). It marked the first time the Steelers have returned two interceptions for scores since CB Dewayne Washington returned two on Nov. 22, 1998 against Jacksonville.

In Pittsburgh's Week 3 victory at Tampa Bay, DE Brett Keisel posted his first career interception and returned it 79 yards for a score.

Pittsburgh's three interception returns for scores in 2010 were the most since 2004 when Polamalu, LB James Farrior and former CB Deshea Townsend each posted a "pick six". The team record for a single season is five, set in 1987.

The following is a list of the most interception returns for a touchdown by the team in a single season:

Rank	Year	INTs for TDs
1.	1987	5
2.	1984	4
	1983	4
	1947	4
5.	2010	3
	2004	3
	1998	3
	1996	3
	1995	3
	1973	3
	1954	3
	1951	3

Heinz Field Advantage: The Steelers own the best home record in the NFL with a 227-88-1 record (.720) since 1970.

Pittsburgh is 58-21-1 all-time at Heinz Field. The Steelers are 42-14 (.750) at home over the past seven seasons, including a 5-3 record in 2010.

Pittsburgh finished the 2004 regular season with an undefeated (8-0) home record for only the third time in team history and for the first time in 25 years.

The Steelers finished the 1979 regular season with an undefeated home record (8-0) and eventually won Super Bowl XIV. The Steelers were also undefeated at home (7-0) in 1972.

The following is a look at the list of the Steelers' records at home since 2004:

Year	Record
2004	8-0
2005	5-3
2006	5-3
2007	7-1
2008	6-2
2009	6-2
2010	5-3

If You Build It, They Will Come: The Steelers averaged 63,084 fans at home games in 2010. Pittsburgh had a season-high 65,168 in Week 6 versus Cleveland, the fifth-highest attendance total in Heinz Field history, including the postseason.

In 2009, the Steelers broke two attendance records at Heinz Field. In their Week 7 victory over the Minnesota Vikings, the Steelers broke the single-game record. The attendance of 65,597 surpassed the old mark of 65,350 set January 18, 2009, during the AFC Championship Game against the Baltimore Ravens.

For the 2009 season, Pittsburgh averaged 63,458 fans (507,882 total) at home games, breaking the old mark of 63,429 (507,434) in 2005.

Pittsburgh has sold out 301 straight games at home, dating back to Nov. 5, 1972 versus Cincinnati.

Following is a look at the team's average attendance in its 10 years at Heinz Field:

Year	Total Attendance	Avg.
2001	499,191	62,399
2002	490,274	61,284
2003	477,584	59,698

2010	504,669	63,084

• Team record

Home Sweet Home: The Steelers played three straight home games (Weeks 14-16) in 12 days near the end of the 2010 season.

The Steelers started the three-game home stand with a 23-7 victory over the Cincinnati Bengals in Week 14. Pittsburgh then suffered a 22-17 setback to the New York Jets in Week 15 before closing out the three-game stretch with a 27-3 victory over the Carolina Panthers in Week 16.

The three-game homestand was the first for the Steelers since 1986 and the first time in team history they have played three homes games in 12 days.

Road Warriors: The Steelers have had great success playing away from Heinz Field over the last decade. The Steelers were 7-1 on the road in 2010.

Since the beginning of the 2000 season, the Steelers own the fourth-best road winning percentage in the NFL.

The following is a list of the top road winning percentages since 2000:

Team	W	L	T	Pct.
Indianapolis	59	29	0	.670
Philadelphia	57	30	1	.653
New England	57	31	0	.648
Pittsburgh	53	35	0	.602
New Orleans	50	38	0	.568
New York Giants	50	38	0	.568

On The Road Again: The Steelers had a stretch of three straight road games (Weeks 7-9) in 2010.

Pittsburgh won the first leg of the road trip, defeating the Miami Dolphins 23-22 in Week 7, but fell in Week 8, 20-10, at New Orleans. The Steelers concluded the three-game road trip with a 27-21 victory in Week 9 at Cincinnati on Monday Night Football.

The last time Pittsburgh played three straight regular-season road games was in 1994, playing at the New York Giants (W, 10-6), at Arizona (L, 20-17 in OT) and at the Houston Oilers (W, 12-9 in OT).

200 Plateau: Pittsburgh is 7-0 all-time in the postseason when rushing for more than 200 yards.

The Steelers have won 27 straight games in which they have rushed for more than 200 yards. Pittsburgh was 2-0 in 2010 when rushing for at least 200 yards (206 at Buffalo in Week 12; 201 at Tampa Bay in Week 3).

Since the NFL merger in 1970, Pittsburgh is 98-6 (.942) in the regular season when it rushes for more than 200 yards in a game.

Working Overtime: The Steelers were 2-0 in 2010 in overtime games, improving their all-time regular-season record to 18-14-2 in such games.

K Shaun Suisham booted a 41-yard field goal with 2:14 remaining in overtime to give Pittsburgh a 19-16 victory in Week 12 at Buffalo. The Steelers also defeated the Atlanta Falcons in Week 1 as RB Rashard Mendenhall broke free for a 50-yard touchdown run with 12:25 left in overtime.

Block Party: In the Week 9 (2010) victory at Cincinnati, CB William Gay blocked a Bengals' punt that led to a Steelers' field goal in the first quarter.

Gay's blocked punt was the first for the Steelers since LB Andre Frazier blocked a Washington Redskins' punt on Nov. 3, 2008.

Continued Success: Since the 1970 merger of the National and American Football Leagues, the Pittsburgh Steelers own the best record in the NFL.

The following is a look at the top three regular-season records since the merger in 1970:

	Team	W	L	T	Pct.
1.	Pittsburgh Steelers	384	246	2	.612
2.	Miami Dolphins	379	251	2	.600
3.	Dallas Cowboys	373	259	0	.592

Among The Best: The Steelers have 577 career wins (including postseason), which is the fourth-most in NFL history.

The following is a listing of the top five teams in the NFL for career wins (including postseason):

	Team	Wins
1.	Chicago Bears	719
2.	Green Bay Packers	689
3.	New York Giants	656
4.	Pittsburgh Steelers	577
5.	Washington Redskins	570

Additionally, Pittsburgh owns the second-best record in the NFL since the free-agency era (since 1993) with a 181-106-1 (.630) record.

The following is a look at the top three regular-season records in the free agency era (since 1993):

	Team	W	L	T	Pct.
1.	New England Patriots	185	103	0	.644
2.	Pittsburgh Steelers	181	106	1	.630
3.	Green Bay Packers	178	110	0	.620

Regular-Season Success: Pittsburgh owns the third-best regular-season record in the NFL over the past 10 years. The Steelers have averaged over 10 wins per year and have earned seven playoff berths, six division titles and two Super Bowl victories in that time period.

The following are the top five teams in regular-season winning percentage from 2000-2010:

Team	W	L	T	Pct.	Playoff Berths
New England	126	50	0	.716	8
Indianapolis	125	51	0	.710	9
Pittsburgh	115	60	1	.656	7
Philadelphia	113	62	1	.650	9
Green Bay	104	72	0	.591	7

Sustaining Success: Pittsburgh has made the playoffs six times and won the AFC North five times since the divisional realignment in 2002. The Steelers won the AFC North Division for the third time in four years in 2010.

The Steelers have won 20 division titles since the NFL merger in 1970, the most in the NFL during that time.

The following is a list of teams that have won the most division titles and qualified for the playoffs since 2002:

Team	Playoffs	Division Titles
Indianapolis	9	7
New England	7	7
Philadelphia	7	6
Pittsburgh	6	5
San Diego	5	5
Green Bay	6	4

Return The Favor: Rookie WR Antonio Brown returned the opening kickoff for a touchdown in the Steelers' Week 2 (2010) victory at Tennessee. It marked the first kickoff return for Pittsburgh since Allen Rossum returned a kickoff 98 yards for a score against the San Francisco 49ers on Sept. 23, 2007.

The following is a list of the kickoff returns for touchdowns (4) for Pittsburgh over the last 11 years (start of 2000 season):

Date	Player	Yards	Opponent
Sept. 19, 2010	Antonio Brown	89	at Tennessee
Sept. 23, 2007	Allen Rossum	98	vs. San Francisco
Oct. 12, 2002	Antwaan Randle El	99	at Cincinnati
Dec. 24, 2000	Will Blackwell	98	at San Diego

Controlling The NFC: The Steelers have won 23 of their past 28 regular-season games versus teams in the NFC, dating back to 2003.

The Steelers are 90-57-1 (.611) all-time against teams from the NFC, including a 55-19-1 record at home and a 35-38 mark on the road. Pittsburgh had won eight straight games versus NFC teams at home prior to its 2008 loss to the New York Giants.

The Steelers are 6-2 versus the NFC in the Super Bowl.

In the Red Zone: The Steelers converted 43 (24 touchdowns, 19 field goals) of their 50 attempts in the red zone into points in 2010.

Following is a look at how the Steelers offense performed in the red zone in 2010:

Opponent	Att./Scores	TDs	FGs	Pts

COACHING NOTES

In Control: Head Coach Mike Tomlin owns an 18-6 all-time mark against teams in the AFC North.

Tomlin owns an impressive 10-2 record against divisional foes at Heinz Field.

Fast Start: Head Coach Mike Tomlin owns a 43-21 overall record in his four seasons as head coach. That record ties former coach Bill Cowher for the best total by a Steelers' head coach in his first four seasons at the helm.

Our House: Head Coach Mike Tomlin owns a 24-8 regular-season record at Heinz Field in his four seasons in Pittsburgh.

The Steelers were 5-3 at home in 2010.

Tomlin Versus the NFC: Head Coach Mike Tomlin owns a 12-4 regular-season record against NFC teams in his four seasons at the helm of the Steelers.

The Steelers were 3-1 in 2010 against NFC teams (Week 1 victory over the Atlanta Falcons, Week 3 victory against Tampa Bay, Week 8 defeat at New Orleans, Week 16 victory Carolina).

Nine Times: Head Coach Mike Tomlin became only the seventh head coach to win at least nine games in each of his first four seasons since the NFL merger in 1970.

Monday Night Specialist: Head Coach Mike Tomlin improved to 6-0 on Monday Night Football with the Steelers' Week 9 (2010) victory at Cincinnati.

Tomlin joined only Bill Cowher (Steelers), Tom Flores (Raiders), Steve Mariucci (49ers), George Siefert (49ers) and Don Shula (Colts, Dolphins) to win their first six Monday Night Football games.

Perfect To Start: Head Coach Mike Tomlin owns a perfect 4-0 record in season openers. He is the only current coach to have a 4-0 record on Kickoff Weekend.

Few And Far Between: Head Coach Mike Tomlin became only the second coach in Steelers' history to post winning records in each of his first four seasons. Tomlin is the only coach in team history to win division titles in each of his first two seasons (2007-08).

In 2007, Tomlin became just the second head coach in team history to post a winning record in his first season with a mark of 10-6.

High Honor Roll: Defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in August of this year. LeBeau had an outstanding NFL career, finishing with 62 career interceptions (seventh all-time) and 171 consecutive starts (then-NFL record for a cornerback) with the Detroit Lions.

LeBeau was also inducted into the Ohio State University Hall of Fame in 2009. He played at Ohio State as a cornerback and halfback and was a member of the 1957 national championship team.

INDIVIDUAL OFFENSIVE NOTES

Title Man: QB Ben Roethlisberger has led the Steelers to the AFC Championship Game four times in his first seven seasons. He is one of only two active NFL quarterbacks to win multiple Super Bowl titles (Tom Brady).

Roethlisberger joined Roger Staubach, Bernie Kosar, Tom Brady and Donovan McNabb as the only quarterbacks to lead their teams to the conference title game at least three times in their first five seasons as the starting quarterback.

Controlling The North: QB Ben Roethlisberger owns a 29-7 (.806) record as a starter against AFC North opponents during his career with the Steelers. He finished a perfect 5-0 in 2010 against divisional foes.

Roethlisberger had won 12 straight games against divisional foes as the starter prior to the Week 3 setback at Cincinnati in 2009, which was the longest streak in the NFL and the longest since Peyton Manning won 12 straight from 2004-06.

In his 36 career games versus division opponents, Roethlisberger has posted a perfect passer rating once (11/5/07 vs. Baltimore) and has recorded a passer rating of over 100.0 a total of 14 times.

The following is a look at his statistics against the AFC North in his 36 games as a starter:

Statistic	36 games vs. AFC North (as a starter)
Record	29-7
Completion Pct. (Comp.-Att.)	61.1 (621-1,016)
Passing Yards	7,920
Passing Touchdowns	50
Interceptions	32
Passer Rating	88.8

Also, the following is a look at Roethlisberger's career statistics against AFC North opponents as a starter at home compared to the road:

Statistic	Home vs. AFC North	Away vs. AFC North
Record	15-4	14-3
Completion Pct. (Comp.-Att.)	60.9 (332-545)	61.0 (289-471)
Passing Yards	4,358	3,542
Passing Touchdowns	28	22
Interceptions	20	12
Passer Rating	88.0	89.5

On Target At Heinz: QB Ben Roethlisberger owned a 4-2 record as the starting quarterback at Heinz Field in 2010 and put up impressive numbers for the home crowd.

Roethlisberger had 11 touchdowns to just two interceptions and completed 60.7 percent of his passes for 1,761 yards at Heinz Field (100.2 passer rating). He tossed three touchdown passes in three consecutive home games early in 2010 and threw for 387 yards against the New England Patriots in Week 10.

Home Cooking: QB Ben Roethlisberger owns a 38-12 (.760) mark in the regular season in his career at Heinz Field, including winning his first eight starts as a rookie in 2004.

At Heinz Field, Roethlisberger has completed 62.8 percent of his passes for 11,818 with 72 touchdowns and 42 interceptions for a passer rating of 93.1. He has thrown for more than 300 yards nine times and has 22 multi-touchdown games at home (17-5 record in such games).

Roethlisberger has twice posted a perfect passer rating at home, including most recently in Week 9 of 2007 against Baltimore. He also had a perfect passer rating (158.3) against Tennessee in the 2005 season opener and has posted at least a 125.0 passer rating seven times.

The Steelers have scored at least 20 points in 41 of the 50 games at home with Roethlisberger as the starter.

Starting In Style: In his first seven seasons, QB Ben Roethlisberger owns a 69-29 (.704) record as a starting quarterback in the regular season. That mark is the second-best record in the NFL among all active quarterbacks.

His 63-27 record after his first 90 starts in the NFL ranks third (tied) in league history for the best record in such starts. Only Tom Brady (67-23) and Ken Stabler (66-23-1) had better records in their first 90 starts in the NFL. Roethlisberger's record is tied with Jim McMahon.

The following is a look at the top five starting records among active quarterbacks in the NFL (min. 25 starts):

Name	W	L	T	Pct.
1. Tom Brady, Patriots	111	32	0	.776
2. Ben Roethlisberger, Steelers	69	29	0	.704

 NFL Record*

Passing Perfection: QB Ben Roethlisberger has achieved a number of outstanding single-season accomplishments in his seven-year career, including achieving a feat three times that is rarely done in the NFL.

Roethlisberger, who set the team's single-season mark for passer rating (104.1) in 2007, has had a perfect passer rating (158.3) three times in his career, tying him with QB Peyton Manning for the most in NFL history (minimum 10 attempts).

Roethlisberger's 41 career 100-plus passer rating games in the regular season rank first in team history, surpassing Terry Bradshaw, who had 31 such games since the passer rating rule was implemented in 1973.

Comeback Kid: QB Ben Roethlisberger had three fourth quarter/overtime game-winning drives in 2010. He now has 23 in his career in the regular season.

Roethlisberger guided the Steelers to a 13-10 victory over the Baltimore Ravens in Week 13 despite having a broken nose and an injury to his right foot. Roethlisberger tossed a nine-yard, game-winning touchdown pass to RB Isaac Redman with less than three minutes remaining in the game to give Pittsburgh the win.

Roethlisberger led the Steelers to a 19-16 overtime victory in Week 12 at Buffalo and also guided the Steelers from a 22-20 deficit late in the fourth quarter to a 23-22 victory in Week 7 at Miami this year.

A listing of all of Roethlisberger's fourth quarter and overtime game-winning drives entering the 2010 season are available on page 255 of the Steelers media guide.

300-Yard Plateau: QB Ben Roethlisberger has thrown for over 300 yards 15 times in his career, including three times in 2010 — Week 7 at Miami (302 yards), Week 10 versus New England (387) and Week 16 versus Carolina (320). The 15 career 300-yard passing games are a team record.

Roethlisberger threw for over 300 yards five times in 2009, which broke the team record of four previously held by Tommy Maddox (2003) and Neil O'Donnell (1995).

All-Around Performance: QB Ben Roethlisberger had a productive outing all-around in the Steelers' Week 11 (2010) victory over the Oakland Raiders.

Roethlisberger finished 18-of-29 for 275 yards passing with three touchdowns and no interceptions (127.8 passer rating).

Additionally, Roethlisberger finished with a career-high 55 yards rushing on three carries (18.3 avg.), including a 16-yard touchdown run. His previous career high was 49 yards rushing on Nov. 11, 2007 versus Cleveland.

Deadly Combination: QB Ben Roethlisberger and WR Mike Wallace have become a deadly combination in just their second season together.

The two have combined for eight touchdowns of at least 40 yards in their two seasons together, which ranks first in team history. The following is a list of the top QB-WR combos in terms of touchdowns of 40 yards in club history:

Quarterback/Wide Receiver	Career TDs of 40-plus yds.
Ben Roethlisberger/Mike Wallace	8
Bubby Brister/Louis Lipps	7
Terry Bradshaw/John Stallworth	6
Jim Finks/Ray Mathews	6

Facing The NFC: With a career record of 68-29 as a starter, QB Ben Roethlisberger has posted gaudy numbers no matter the opposition.

During his first seven seasons, Roethlisberger has feasted on competition from the NFC. In 25 career regular-season games against NFC opponents, Roethlisberger has posted a 19-6 record while completing 384-of-629 passes (61.0 pct.) for 5,241 yards with 33 touchdowns and 17 interceptions for a passer rating of 93.9.

Roethlisberger's statistics against the NFC are more impressive in games at Heinz Field. In 13 career games against NFC opponents at home, Roethlisberger has a 12-1 mark while completing 195-of-335 passes (58.2 pct.) for 2,841 yards with 17 touchdowns and eight interceptions for a passer rating of 92.9.

Roethlisberger won his first seven starts against NFC teams.

Seasoned Veteran: QB Byron Leftwich owns a 24-25 all-time record as a starting QB, having started 44 games for the Jacksonville Jaguars (2003-06), two for the Atlanta Falcons (2007) and three for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2009).

Leftwich appeared in one game this season, Week 17 at Cleveland, and finished 5-of-7 for 42 yards (86.6 passer rating).

Leftwich played in five games for the Steelers in 2008, but did not start any of those contests. In those five games for Pittsburgh, he was 21-for-36 for 303 passing yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions (104.3 passer rating). Leftwich also had one of his nine career rushing touchdowns as a backup with the Steelers.

For his career, Leftwich has 10,260 career passing yards with 58 touchdowns and 41 interceptions (79.7 passer rating).

Best of the Batch: QB Charlie Batch started two games in 2010 for the Steelers (Weeks 3-4) and went 1-1 in those two starts.

Against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in Week 3, Batch finished 12-of-17 for 186 yards passing with three touchdowns and two interceptions (106.5 passer rating). He tied a career high with his three touchdown passes.

Batch has a 23-29 record as a starting quarterback, including a 4-2 record in his nine seasons with Pittsburgh.

In his six career starts with the Steelers, Batch is 77-of-129 (59.7 pct.) for 969 yards with eight touchdowns and six interceptions (84.4 passer rating).

Batch did not start the Week 2 game at Tennessee earlier this year, but he came on in the second quarter and finished the game following a knee injury to starter Dennis Dixon. Batch finished 5-for-11 for 25 yards against the Titans.

Top Dawg: WR Hines Ward leads the Steelers in at least 14 different career receiving categories.

Ward is the team's all-time leader in receiving yards (11,702), receptions (954) and receiving touchdowns (83).

Ward is the only wide receiver in Steelers history to be voted to four Pro Bowls. Ward's 1,167 receiving yards in 2009 made him the first Steelers receiver to reach 1,000 yards six times during his career with the team. No other Steeler has more than three.

Additionally, Ward has 29 career 100-yard receiving games, which is first on the team's all-time list.

In 2002, Ward became the first receiver in Steelers history to catch 100 passes (112) in a season. He also became the first Steelers receiver with three consecutive games with at least 100 yards receiving. His 12 touchdown receptions in 2002 tied him with Louis Lipps (1985) and Buddy Dial (1961) for the highest single-season total in team history.

Ward was selected to the 2002-05 AFC Pro Bowl squads.

The following is where Ward ranks in Steelers history in several key receiving categories:

Ward Still Has It: WR Hines Ward surpassed 11,000 receiving yards for his career in the 2010 season opener against the Atlanta Falcons. Ward finished with 108 yards receiving on six catches and became the first receiver in team history to post 900 career receptions.

Ward had a season-high 131 yards receiving on seven receptions in the Week 7 victory at Miami. He also added his 81st career receiving touchdown against the Dolphins.

Ward had four 100-yard receiving games in 2010, including 115 yards versus Cincinnati in Week 14, giving him a club-record 29 in his career. He had five 100-yard receiving games in 2009 and also posted his club-record sixth 1,000-yard receiving season of his career.

Ward, who is in his 13th year in the league, proved he is still one of the elite wide receivers in the game by closing out the 2009 campaign ranking eighth in the NFL in receptions (95) and ninth (tied) in receiving yards (1,167).

Ward currently ranks third among active wide receivers (T-11th overall in NFL history) with 954 career receptions. The following is a list the top three active wide receivers with the most career receptions:

Active Player	Career Receptions
Terrell Owens	1,078
Hines Ward	954
Randy Moss	954

Catching Consistency: WR Hines Ward had caught at least one pass in a Steelers' record 186 consecutive games before the streak was snapped in Week 10 (2010) versus the New England Patriots. Ward left the game in the first quarter with a concussion and did not return. The streak began on Nov. 9, 1998 versus Green Bay.

That streak ranks first among active players for consecutive games with at least one reception and third in NFL history. Jerry Rice (274) owns the top all-time record for consecutive games with a reception.

The following is a look at the top five all-time players in the NFL with the most consecutive regular-season games with at least one reception:

Player	Consecutive Games
Jerry Rice	274
Marvin Harrison	190
Hines Ward	186
Terrell Owens	185
Art Monk	183

11,000 And Counting: WR Hines Ward became the first receiver in team history to reach 11,000 career receiving yards when he finished with 108 yards receiving in Week 1 (2010) versus the Atlanta Falcons. Ward currently has 11,702 receiving yards for his career.

Ward became just the fifth player in NFL history to reach 11,000 receiving yards while playing on only one team in their career. Additionally, Ward, who has 954 career receptions, became just the 12th player in NFL history to record 900 receptions and 11,000 yards in a career.

The following is a list of the players who have played their entire career with one team and posted more than 10,000 receiving yards:

Player (Team)	Total Receiving Yds.
Marvin Harrison (Colts)	14,580
Steve Largent (Seahawks)	13,089
Michael Irvin (Cowboys)	11,904
Hines Ward (Steelers)	11,702
Rod Smith (Broncos)	11,389

Hines Hanging Around: WR Hines Ward has been with the Steelers since he was drafted in the third round in the 1998 NFL Draft. Ward owns the longest tenure among wide receivers with their current team.

The following is a list of the longest-tenured wideouts with the current team:

Player	Team	First Year With Team
Hines Ward	Steelers	1998
Donald Driver	Packers	1999
Brian Finneran	Falcons	2000

Red-Zone Receiver: WR Hines Ward has been a major target for Pittsburgh quarterbacks in the red zone.

Since 2002, Ward is third in the NFL with 48 red-zone touchdowns. Ward had four red-zone touchdowns in 2010.

The following is a look at the top three active players in the NFL with touchdowns in the red zone since 2002:

	Player (Team)	# of Red-Zone TDs
1.	Randy Moss (Titans/Vikings/Patriots/Raiders)	51
	Antonio Gates (Chargers)	51
3.	Hines Ward (Steelers)	48

Ward On The Run: WR Hines Ward's versatility makes him a threat to run the football as well as catch a pass.

Ward has 428 career rushing yards to mark the most by a Steelers wide receiver in team history.

Ward scored his first (and only) career rushing touchdown in 2004 against Philadelphia.

Wallace Ready For More: In 2010, WR Mike Wallace posted his first career 1,000-yard season as he led all Steelers with 60 receptions, 1,257 receiving yards and 10 receiving touchdowns, all career highs.

Wallace continues to be one of the NFL's top deep threats, averaging a conference-best 21.0 yards per catch (2nd in NFL), after leading the NFL in receiving average as a rookie in 2009.

Wallace had 26 receptions for at least 20 yards in 2010, the most since Hall of Famer John Stallworth had 24 in 1984.

The Steelers are 12-1 when Wallace scores a touchdown in a game during his two-year career.

During his rookie year, Wallace had 39 catches for 756 yards (19.4 avg.) with six touchdowns. His 19.4 yards per catch average led the NFL. Wallace led all AFC rookies with 756 receiving yards and ranked fourth among all AFC rookies with 39 receptions.

Breakout Campaign: WR Mike Wallace had a personal-best 10 receiving touchdowns in 2010 and posted three consecutive 100-yard receiving games (Weeks 9-11).

Wallace led the NFL with seven 100-yard receiving games in 2010, tying the team's single season record set by John Stallworth in 1984.

Wallace finished with career highs of eight receptions for 136 yards with the two scores against the New England Patriots in Week 10.

Against the Cincinnati Bengals, Wallace had 110 yards receiving in the Steelers' Week 9 victory. He finished with 110 yards on five catches (22.0 avg.) with one touchdown, a 39-yard reception from WR Antwaan Randle El.

Wallace had a 53-yard touchdown catch in the Week 7 victory at the Miami Dolphins and hauled in a 50-yard reception in the Week 6 victory over the Cleveland Browns. He finished with three catches for 90 yards, including a 29-yard touchdown, against the Browns.

Wallace caught a 46-yard touchdown and a 41-yard touchdown from QB Charlie Batch in the Steelers' Week 3 victory at Tampa Bay. He became the first Steelers' receiver to have two 40-plus-yard touchdowns in the same game since Louis Lipps on Dec. 4, 1988 at Houston. Only five times in club history has a receiver had two touchdown catches of at least 40 yards.

The following is a list of all of Wallace's catches (15) of at least 40 yards:

Reception	Opponent	Date
60 yards (TD)	vs. Green Bay	12/20/09
56 yards (TD)	at Cleveland	1/2/11
54 yards (TD)	at Miami	1/3/10
53 yards (TD)	at Miami	10/24/10
52 yards (TD)	vs. Oakland	11/21/20
52 yards	vs. Atlanta	9/12/10
51 yards	at Cincinnati	9/27/09
50 yards	vs. Cleveland	10/17/10
47 yards (TD)	at Detroit	10/11/09
46 yards (TD)	at Tampa Bay	9/26/10
45 yards	vs. Baltimore	12/27/09
43 yards (TD)	vs. Carolina	12/23/10
41 yards	at Cleveland	1/2/11
41 yards (TD)	at Tampa Bay	9/26/10
40 yards (TD)	vs. Minnesota	10/25/09

The following is a look at the five times in franchise history a player has posted two touchdown receptions of at least 40 yards in a game:

Reception	Opponent	Date
Mike Wallace	at Tampa Bay	9/26/10
Louis Lipps	at Houston	12/4/88
Lynn Swann	Cincinnati	12/2/79
Gary Ballman	Washington	9/25/66
Ray Mathews	Cleveland	10/17/54

Mr. Accuracy: WR Antwaan Randle El had two touchdown passes in 2010, marking the first time in his career he had thrown for two scores in the same year.

Randle El tossed a three-yard touchdown pass to WR Hines Ward in the 2010 regular-season finale at Cleveland.

Randle El tossed a 39-yard touchdown pass to fellow WR Mike Wallace in the Steelers' Week 9 victory at the Cincinnati Bengals, marking his fifth career touchdown pass in the regular season (third with Pittsburgh).

Randle El has completed 22-of-27 passes for 323 yards in his career, tossing six touchdowns with no interceptions. His passer rating of 156.1 is the highest rating in NFL history for non-quarterbacks with at least 25 attempts. The next-best non-quarterback passers in league history are Hall of Fame running backs Marcus Allen (106.8 rating) and Frank Gifford (92.5).

Randle El's most memorable touchdown pass was in Super Bowl XL, when he tossed a 43-yard touchdown strike to Ward in the fourth quarter to seal the Steelers' victory over the Seattle Seahawks.

Mendenhall Makes The Most Of It: RB Rashard Mendenhall ran through the 2010 season in the same fashion he did during the 2009 campaign...in style. He ranked fifth in the AFC and seventh in the NFL with 1,273 yards rushing, and he led the team with a career-high 13 rushing touchdowns.

Mendenhall led the Steelers in scoring with 78 points, becoming the first running back to lead the team in scoring since Franco Harris scored 11 touchdowns in 1977.

Mendenhall's career-high 1,273 rushing yards marked his second consecutive season with over 1,000 yards on the ground. He has surpassed his previous total of 1,108 rushing yards in 2009.

Mendenhall had three 100-yard rushing games in 2010 and his 13 rushing touchdowns were the most by Pittsburgh since RB Willie Parker had 13 in 2006. The team record is 14, set by Franco Harris in 1976.

In Week 12 at Buffalo, Mendenhall finished with a season-high 151 yards rushing on 36 attempts, which were a career best. The 36 attempts were also the most since former RB Willie Parker rushed 37 times in the 2006 season finale at Cincinnati.

In Week 4 versus the Baltimore Ravens, Mendenhall posted his second career multi-rushing touchdown game. He finished with 79 yards rushing on 25 carries (3.2 avg.) with two scores.

Mendenhall helped the Steelers to a 15-9 overtime victory over the Atlanta Falcons in Week 1 as he posted a 50-yard, game-winning touchdown run on Pittsburgh's first offensive play in overtime. The run capped off a 120-yard rushing performance on 22 carries (5.5 avg.).

Miller Time: TE Heath Miller moved into second place on the Steelers' all-time receiving yardage list for tight ends in Week 7 at Miami. He now has 3,233 career receiving yards, trailing only Elbie Nickel (5,133 receiving yards) on the team's all-time list for tight ends.

Miller has 29 career touchdowns, which is second on the team's all-time list for touchdowns by a tight end. Pittsburgh is 20-6 when Miller finds the end zone.

Miller was named an offensive co-captain for the first time in his career in 2010, following his 2009 Pro-Bowl season. He finished 2010 with 42 receptions for 512 yards with two touchdowns.

In 2009, Miller developed into one of the Steelers' most potent offensive weapons as he was first (tied) on the team with six receiving touchdowns. Miller was third on the team with a career-high 76 catches, which broke the team's single-season record for receptions by a tight end, and had a personal single-season best 789 receiving yards (10.4 avg.) in 2009. In addition, his blocking ability separates him from many "receiving" tight ends.

Center of Attention: Pittsburgh's 2010 first-round draft pick, C Maurkice Pouncey developed into one of the top rookie lineman in Steelers' history.

Pouncey, who was named to the Pro Bowl as a rookie, started all 16 games and was the anchor of an offensive line that led the way for the Steelers to average 120.3 rushing yards per game, nearly 60 yards more than their opponents.

Pouncey became the just the third Steelers' offensive lineman to start the first game of his rookie season since the mid-1960s by starting the Week 1 opener against the Atlanta Falcons. OT Marvel Smith started his first game at right tackle in 2000 and OG Tom Ricketts started at left guard in his first game in 1989.

Pouncey is the first offensive rookie for the Steelers to start every regular-season game since WR Ron Shanklin started all 14 games for Pittsburgh in 1970.

INDIVIDUAL DEFENSIVE NOTES

Harrison In Charge: LB James Harrison, the 2008 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, has been a terror on opposing quarterbacks since he became the starting outside linebacker for the Steelers in 2007.

Harrison, who earned his fourth straight selection to the Pro Bowl this season, led the team with 10.5 sacks on the year. He also had 100 tackles, six forced fumbles and two interceptions in 2010.

Harrison has 49 sacks in his career, seventh-most in team history. The Steelers are 24-11 when he posts a sack.

In the Steelers' Week 11 victory over the Oakland Raiders, Harrison finished with two sacks, one interception, one forced fumble and three tackles. The Steelers improved to 11-0 when he tallies at least two sacks in a contest.

Harrison posted two sacks and finished with a game-high (tied) 14 tackles in the Steelers' Week 6 victory over the Cleveland Browns.

Harrison was all over the field in the Week 2 victory at Tennessee. He finished with nine tackles, two sacks, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery. Additionally, he was a major reason the Steelers snapped RB Chris Johnson's 12-game streak of at least 100 rushing yards as they limited him to just 34 yards on 16 carries (2.1 avg.). Harrison was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts against the Titans.

Harrison posted a sack and seven tackles in the Week 1 overtime victory over the Atlanta Falcons. He also drew an offensive holding penalty on the Falcons first (and only) drive of overtime, which forced Atlanta into a long third down and ultimately led to a punt two plays later.

Sack Attack: LB James Harrison had a team-high 10.5 sacks in 2010 after posting 10 in 2009.

Harrison had a career-high 16 sacks in 2008, breaking the team record for sacks in a season. Mike Merriweather previously held the record since 1984.

The following is a list of the top five single-season sack leaders in team history:

Rk.	Name (Year)	# of Sacks
1.	James Harrison (2008)	16
2.	Mike Merriweather (1984)	15
3.	Kevin Greene (1994)	14
	Keith Willis (1983)	14
5.	LaMarr Woodley (2009)	13.5
	Jason Gildon (2000)	13.5

Outside Presence: LB James Harrison forced two fumbles in the Week 2 victory at Tennessee, his first two of the 2010 campaign. He has a team-best six forced fumbles on the year.

Harrison had five forced fumbles in 2009 after leading the NFL with seven forced fumbles in 2008, which was tied for the most by a Steeler during the free agency era (1992-2008).

The following is a list of the top five single-season forced fumbles leaders for the Steelers since 1992:

Rk.	Name (Year)	# of FF
1.	James Harrison (2008)	7
	Greg Lloyd (1994)	7
3.	James Harrison (2010)	6
	James Harrison (2007)	6
	Greg Lloyd (1995)	6

Additionally, Harrison ranks second in team history for career forced fumbles, behind only Greg Lloyd. The following is a list of the top seven career forced fumble leaders for the Steelers since 1987:

Rk.	Name	# of FF
1.	Greg Lloyd	36
2.	James Harrison	24
3.	Jason Gildon	18
4.	Rod Woodson	17
5.	Joey Porter	16
	Carnell Lake	16
7.	James Farrior	14
	Levon Kirkland	14

Double Trouble: The Steelers have a tradition of fielding some of the best pass-rushing linebackers in the NFL, and current linebackers James Harrison and LaMarr Woodley have accounted for two of the top four sack totals by a Steelers' duo in team history.

In 2010, Harrison (10.5) and Woodley (10) combined for 20.5 sacks. They totaled 23.5 sacks between them (Woodley 13.5, Harrison - 10) in 2009.

In 2008, Harrison and Woodley broke the team's top sack duo record (since 1982) by combining for 27.5 sacks. The 27.5 sacks by Harrison (16) and Woodley (11.5) broke the record (24) previously held by Jason Gildon (13.5) and Joey Porter (10.5) in 2000 and Kevin Greene (14) and Greg Lloyd (10) in 1994.

The following is a list of the Steelers' top sack duos since 1982, when sacks became an official NFL statistic:

Steelers Top Sack Duos (Since 1982)

Year	Players (Ind. sacks)	Total Sacks
2008	James Harrison (16*)	27.5
	LaMarr Woodley (11.5)
2000	Jason Gildon (13.5)	24
	Joey Porter (10.5)
1994	Kevin Greene (14)	24

* Steelers Record

Double-Digit Duty: LB James Harrison became the first player in team history to post at least 10 sacks in three straight seasons as he had a team-best 10.5 in 2010.

Harrison posted 10 in 2009 and a career-best (team record) 16 in 2008.

Additionally, LB LaMarr Woodley became just the second player in team history to post at least 10 sacks in three straight years as he finished with 10 in 2010. Woodley recorded 13.5 in 2009 and 11.5 in 2008.

Bringing The Wood: LB LaMarr Woodley has been a force defensively since he became a starter in 2008. He had 10 sacks, two interceptions (one for a TD), three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries in 2010.

Woodley owns an NFL record by posting two sacks in each of his first four postseason games. Woodley has 11 sacks in seven career postseason games, including at least one sack in each game he has played.

Woodley posted his first career interception return for a touchdown in Week 14 against the Cincinnati Bengals, a 14-yarder that sealed the Steelers' victory. He added two sacks and three tackles against the Bengals.

In the Week 14 win over Cincinnati, Woodley became just the second Steeler in the last 50 years with an interception return for a touchdown and at least two sacks in a single game. LB Joey Porter had two sacks and interception return for a score on Sept. 7, 2006 versus Miami.

Woodley returned a fumble 19 yards to set up the game-winning touchdown in Week 13 at Baltimore. He had two sacks in Week 9 at Cincinnati.

Woodley had posted at least a half-sack in 10 straight games, dating from last year to 2010, and had 13.5 sacks during that span (Week 10 of 2009 through Week 2 of this year). That span of 10 straight games broke the team's all-time record of six, previously held by Greg Lloyd in 1994.

In 2009, Woodley had 84 tackles and a career and team-high 13.5 sacks. He ranked second (tied) in the AFC and third (tied) in the NFL with his 13.5 sacks, and he earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl following the 2009 season.

Elite Company: LB LaMarr Woodley has 39 sacks in his first four seasons with the Steelers, which ranks as the best start in franchise history.

The following is a breakdown of sacks in the history of the club in player's first two, three and four seasons (Kevin Greene had 35.5 sacks in his first three seasons with the team, but he had previously played with the L.A. Rams):

Most Sacks (two consecutive seasons)

Name	Sacks	Years
James Harrison	26.0	2008-09
Jason Gildon	25.5	2000-01
LaMarr Woodley	25.0	2008-09

Most Sacks (first three seasons with team)

Name	Sacks	Years
LaMarr Woodley	29.0	2007-09
Keith Willis	20.0	1982-84

Most Sacks (first four seasons with team)

Name	Sacks	Years
LaMarr Woodley	39.0	2007-10
Joey Porter	30.5	1999-02
Chad Brown	30.0	1993-96

Fantastic Farrior: LB James Farrior had 137 tackles, which were second on the team, and six sacks, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery in 2010. Farrior led the team in tackles for seven straight seasons (2003-09).

Farrior's six sacks tied his career high, set in 2007, and he posted at least one sack in five of the final seven games in 2010.

Farrior posted a sack in three straight games earlier in 2010, following his eight-yard sack against the Baltimore Ravens in Week 13. It marked the first time in his career he had tallied a sack in three consecutive games.

Farrior posted 11 tackles and helped the Steelers keep the Falcons out of the end zone in a Week 1 overtime victory over Atlanta.

Farrior led the team with 126 total tackles (89 solo) and had three sacks and one interception in 2009, marking his seventh straight season with 100-plus tackles for the Steelers.

Farrior has 11 career interceptions, including eight with Pittsburgh and three while playing for the New York Jets.

Timmons Time: LB Lawrence Timmons exploded onto the scene in 2010 as he led the team with 149 tackles (100 solo) and also had three sacks, two interceptions, two forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. Timmons, the Steelers' No. 1 pick in the 2007 NFL Draft, was in his second season as a starter after a solid 2009 campaign.

Timmons posted 14 tackles and finished with two sacks and an interception in the Week 6 victory over the Cleveland Browns in 2010. It marked his first interception of the season (2nd of his career). Timmons was named AFC Player of the Week for his efforts against the Browns.

In the Week 2 victory over Tennessee, Timmons tallied 15 tackles while helping the Steelers snap RB Chris Johnson's streak of 12 straight games with at least 100 rushing yards. Timmons posted 11 tackles and added a QB pressure in the season-opening victory over the Atlanta Falcons.

Man Of Troy: SS Troy Polamalu was back at it again this year making the "splash" plays that put him among the elite in the NFL. For his efforts, Polamalu was named 2010 NFL Defensive Player of the Year.

Polamalu, who missed Weeks 15-16 with an ankle injury, tied his career high with a team-best seven interceptions in 2010, which ranked second (tied) in the AFC and in the NFL. He now has 27 career interceptions, the most of any active Steeler. The team is 22-3 when Polamalu has an interception.

In the Steelers' Week 14 victory against the Cincinnati Bengals, Polamalu posted his second career multi-touchdown game (Nov. 14, 2004 vs. Cleveland) as he picked off QB Carson Palmer twice, including one returned for a 45-yard touchdown in the second quarter. It was his second career interception returned for a score, both coming off of Palmer (Oct. 3, 2004). He was named the AFC Defensive Player of the Week for the second straight week for his efforts.

In the Steelers' Week 13 victory over the Baltimore Ravens, Polamalu delivered one of biggest plays of the NFL season as he sacked QB Joe Flacco and stripped the ball with just over three minutes remaining in the game, leading to a Steelers' fumble recovery deep in Ravens' territory. Three plays later, Pittsburgh scored the eventual game-winning touchdown to take sole possession of first place in the AFC North. Polamalu was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week following the game.

Polamalu halted a Buffalo drive in Pittsburgh's Week 12 victory over the Bills by picking off a pass at the goal line, helping the Steelers' into a 19-16 overtime win.

In Week 1 versus Atlanta, Polamalu posted the team's lone interception late in the fourth quarter and finished with six tackles to give Pittsburgh the victory. It marked the fourth season opener in the past five years that he has picked off a pass.

Face Me Ike: CB Ike Taylor had a Pro Bowl caliber year as he was consistently matched up against the opponents' top receiver on a weekly basis.

Taylor posted a career-best (tied) two interceptions, 72 tackles, one sack and one forced fumble. He also had 11 passes defensed, which ranked third on the team.

Return of BMac: CB Bryant McFadden was back with the Steelers in 2010 after playing one season for the Arizona Cardinals. He had two forced fumbles on the year and 12 passes defensed, which ranked second on the team.

McFadden had his first sack and forced fumble of the year in Week 8 at New Orleans. He tallied his first interception of the season (eight of his career - all with Pittsburgh) in the Week 2 victory over the Tennessee Titans.

All Good In The Hood: DE Ziggy Hood, the team's No. 1 draft pick in 2009, started the final 10 games of 2010 in place of the injured DE Aaron Smith.

Hood finished the season with 20 tackles and three sacks, which tied for the team-lead among defensive linemen (DE Brett Keisel). He also led the defensive line unit with 18 QB pressures.

INDIVIDUAL SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

Oh So Suisham: K Shaun Suisham was 14-for-15 in field goal attempts and 19-for-19 in PATs in 2010 for 61 points. Suisham was signed by the Steelers prior to Week 11 (Nov. 16).

Suisham kicked a game-winning 41-yard field goal in just his second game with Pittsburgh to give the Steelers a 19-16 victory over the Buffalo Bills in Week 12. Suisham finished the game 4-for-4, booting the game-winner along with 45, 46 and 48-yard field goals.

Suisham had made 15 straight field goals from 40-49 yards, dating back to 2009 with the Washington Redskins, prior to missing a 41-yarder against Carolina in Week 16 of this year.

Suisham further helped the team in Week 13 by serving as the emergency punter, averaging 38.3 yards on three punts with a 34.3 net average, with one punt being downed inside the Baltimore 20-yard line.

Paying Dividends: Rookie WR Emmanuel Sanders became a fixture on the Steelers' special teams units in 2010 after sitting out Weeks 2-4 with a leg injury.

Sanders was the team's primary kick returner and averaged 25.1 yards per kickoff return, including a long of 48 yards. He also returned four punts for 60 yards (15.0 avg.) with a team-best 38-yarder on the year.

Sanders also recorded 12 special teams tackles and forced one fumble recovering kickoffs.

Offensively, Sanders had 28 catches for 376 yards (13.4 avg.) with two touchdowns. He had the best game of his young career in Week 15 against the New York Jets when he finished with personal bests of seven receptions for 78 yards.

Rookie WR Antonio Brown also played a major role in the team's success in both the regular season and the postseason. Brown finished the regular season with 16 catches for 167 yards (10.4 avg.) while returning 19 punts for 110 yards (5.8 avg.).

Brown also returned the team's only kickoff for a touchdown, an 89-yarder against Tennessee in Week 2.

In the postseason, Brown had four catches for 89 yards (22.3 avg.), including a key 58-yarder late in the game in the AFC Divisional Playoff victory over the Baltimore Ravens.

Special Contributions: A pair of rookies provided a spark for the Steelers' special teams' units in 2010.

LB Jason Worilds, the team's 2010 second-round draft pick, had 16 special teams tackles on the year and also had two sacks on defense.

LB Stevenson Sylvester posted 14 special teams tackles in 2010 after being the team's third of three fifth-round draft picks this past year. Sylvester also forced a fumble on special teams.

Additionally, CB Anthony Madison led the team with 22 special teams tackles while LB Keyaron Fox (18 tackles), S Ryan Mundy (15 tackles) and CB William Gay (13 tackles) all played major roles in the teams' special teams units in 2010.

Preseason Game #1

Pittsburgh 23, Detroit 7
Aug. 14, 2010
Heinz Field (55,248)

PITTSBURGH — Steelers' QB Dennis Dixon threw a 68-yard touchdown strike to rookie WR Antonio Brown in the fourth quarter to seal the 23-7 victory over the Detroit Lions in the 2010 preseason opener.

In a game that featured rain delays and a pregame ceremony to honor recent Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee, defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau, the Steelers relied on their stout defense and their young talent to propel them to victory.

S Ryan Clark's interception of Lions' QB Matthew Stafford set up the Steelers' first score. K Jeff Reed connected from 35 yards out to put the Steelers on the board 3-0. But early in the second quarter, QB Matthew Stafford found WR Calvin Johnson for a two-yard score. It would be the last time the Lions would put up any points.

K Jeff Reed put the Steelers within one (7-6) with a 37-yard field goal. On the next drive, Steelers' RB Isaac Redman scored on a one-yard touchdown run, capping off a six-play 75-yard drive. Redman finished with 60 yards on 15 carries.

After a one-hour and 13-minute rain delay, the Lions drove to the Pittsburgh 12-yard line on their opening drive of the second half. However, CB Anthony Madison forced a fumble and the Steelers took over from their own seven-yard-line. On the ensuing drive K Jeff Reed hit a 32-yard field goal, his third of the game, shortly before the third quarter expired.

K Aaron Pettrey missed a 42-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter, and the Steelers took over on their own 32-yard-line. On the first play, Dixon found Brown in the middle of the field for a 68-yard score. Dixon was 6-for-7 for 128 yards and one touchdown. He also rushed for 31 yards.

The Steelers gained 286 yards of total offense, but it was their defense that held the Lions in check. The Steelers defense forced two Lions' turnovers and held them to only 79 yards rushing, while limiting the Lions to only 2-for-9 on third-down conversions.

Preseason Game #2

Pittsburgh 24, New York Giants 17
Aug. 21, 2010
New Meadowlands Stadium (76,469)

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — QB Byron Leftwich found WR Mike Wallace streaking down the middle of the field late in the second quarter for a 68-yard touchdown, and a pair of Steelers' rushing touchdowns in the third quarter sealed the 24-17 victory against the N.Y. Giants at the New Meadowlands Stadium. Pittsburgh improved to 2-0 in the preseason and 12-3 in such games under Head Coach Mike Tomlin.

Tempers flared early in the game resulting in two ejections. On the first possession of the game, CB Ike Taylor and WR Hakeem Nicks exchanged punches and were immediately ejected from the game. The game would remain scoreless until early in the second quarter when K Jeff Reed connected from 26 yards to put the Steelers up 3-0.

The Giants would take a 7-3 lead on RB Ahmad Bradshaw's nine-yard touchdown run midway through the second quarter, but it would be the last time they would lead. The Steelers would go up 10-7 on the 68-yard touchdown pass by Leftwich to Wallace. CB Joe Burnett's interception of QB Rhett Bomar put the Steelers in good field position to add to their lead, but the Giants stopped the Steelers on the one-yard line just as the clock expired before halftime.

On the Steelers first possession of the second half, RB Isaac Redman capped a nine-play, 78-yard drive with a 12-yard rushing touchdown. RB Dwayne Wright scored from two yards out late in the third quarter and the Steelers were up 24-7. The Giants would cut the lead to seven late in the fourth quarter, but the Steelers simply ran the clock out to secure the win.

Despite a slow start in the first quarter, the Steelers racked up 412 yards of total offense. QB Ben Roethlisberger, QB Dennis Dixon and Leftwich combined for 253 yards passing and one touchdown. Steelers running backs accumulated 161 yards on the ground, and five Steelers had at least 25 yards rushing.

For the second consecutive week the Steelers defense limited their opponent to less than 30 percent on third-down conversions, forced at least one turnover and controlled time of possession.

Preseason Game #3
Denver 34, Pittsburgh 17
Aug. 29, 2010
INVESCO Field at Mile High (67,823)

DENVER — Pittsburgh dropped its first game of the preseason as it fell to the Denver Broncos, 34-17, at INVESCO Field at Mile High, thanks in part to three interceptions thrown by Steelers' quarterbacks, two of which were returned for touchdowns. The Steelers fell to 2-1 in the preseason while the Broncos improved to 1-2.

The Broncos struck first when RB LenDale White scored from two yards out on their opening drive. The Steelers responded when K Jeff Reed connected on a 33-yard field goal to cut the lead to 7-3.

QB Dennis Dixon drove the Steelers to the Denver nine-yard line in the second quarter, but was picked off by CB Perrish Cox. On Denver's ensuing drive, K Matt Prater booted a 39-yard field goal to put the Broncos ahead 10-3.

CB William Gay's interception late in the first half put Pittsburgh in position to possibly cut the advantage, but Dixon was picked off by CB Andre Goodman, who returned it 77 yards for a touchdown to give Denver a 17-3 halftime lead.

The Steelers scored early in the fourth quarter on a five-yard touchdown run by RB Jonathan Dwyer that cut the lead to 20-10.

QB Tim Tebow tossed a three-yard touchdown pass to WR Eric Decker on the next drive to give the Broncos a 27-10 lead. However, QB Charlie Batch found WR Antonio Brown for a seven-yard touchdown to trim the lead to 27-17.

After forcing a Denver punt, the Steelers gained possession on their own 23-yard line. However, on the second play, Batch was picked off by CB Syd'Quan Thompson, who returned it 48 yards for a touchdown to seal the victory, 34-17.

The Steelers finished with 355 yards of total offense, including 175 yards on the ground and 180 in the air. Denver tallied 268 yards of offense (128 rushing, 140 passing).

Dwyer led all rushers with 89 yards on 13 carries (6.8 avg.), including a long of 40 yards, and one touchdown. WR Mike Wallace had a team-high three receptions for 59 yards (19.7 avg.), including a 47-yarder from QB Ben Roethlisberger on the team's first offensive play of the game.

Preseason Game #4
Pittsburgh 19, Carolina 3
Sept. 2, 2010
Heinz Field (52,130)

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers capped off a successful 2010 preseason with a strong defensive victory over the Carolina Panthers 19-3 at Heinz Field. The Steelers finished the preseason with a 3-1 record for the second consecutive year and improved to 13-4 all time in preseason under Coach Mike Tomlin.

Both teams got off to a sluggish start in the first quarter as neither team could really do much offensively. The Panthers looked poised to strike first during their opening drive, but K John Kasay hit the crossbar on a 51-yard field goal attempt. Towards the end of the first quarter Steelers K Jeff Reed connected from 33 yards to put the Steelers up 3-0.

Midway through the second quarter Steelers' QB Bryon Leftwich found WR Emmanuel Sanders for an 18-yard gain to put the Steelers at the Carolina 34-yard line. Leftwich injured his knee during the play and would leave the game. QB Dennis Dixon came in for Leftwich and threw a 23-yard touchdown pass three plays later to WR Emmanuel Sanders to put the Steelers up 10-0. It was Dixon's only series of the game.

K Jeff Reed would add to the lead just before halftime with a 43-yard field goal to put the Steelers up 13-0. Reed would add to his total in the third quarter with a 31-yard field goal and towards the end of the fourth quarter with a 32-yard boot. Reed finished the game a perfect 4-for-4 on field goals and finished the preseason a perfect 9-for-9. Carolina's only score came on Kasay's 51-yard field goal at the beginning of the fourth quarter.

Though the Steelers only managed 105 passing yards as a team, Steelers' running backs racked up 168 yards on the ground. For the second consecutive game RB Jonathan Dwyer led the team in rushing and carries. He finished the game with 20 carries for 86 yards, including a long of 36 yards.

After a shaky performance in Denver last week, the Steelers defense responded with a strong showing against the Panthers. The Steelers held Carolina to only 123 yards on offense, had four sacks and held them to only 4-of-16 on third down conversions.

Game #1
Pittsburgh 15, Atlanta 9 (OT)
Sept. 12, 2010
Heinz Field (63,609)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers won their eighth straight game on Kickoff Weekend with a dramatic 15-9 overtime victory against the Atlanta Falcons at Heinz Field. The eight-game winning streak in season openers is the longest current streak in the NFL.

The Falcons won the coin toss in overtime and elected to receive. After two costly holding penalties the Falcons were forced to punt from their own 14-yard line. The Steelers took over at midfield and on the first play RB Rashard Mendenhall broke free for a game-winning 50-yard touchdown run. Mendenhall finished the game with 120 yards on 22 carries and one touchdown, his fourth career 100-yard rushing game.

On the Steelers' opening drive in the first quarter, QB Dennis Dixon, making only his second career start, marched the team to the Atlanta 35-yard line. K Jeff Reed connected from 52 yards out to put the Steelers up 3-0. It was the longest field goal in Heinz Field history and Reed's second longest of his career.

Neither team moved the ball effectively, exchanging punts for most part of the half. Reed missed a 55-yard field goal with 22 seconds left in the half, which left enough time for Atlanta to strike. Falcons' QB Matt Ryan found WR Eric Weems for 17 yards and WR Roddy White for another seven yards to put the Falcons at the Steelers' 32-yard line. K Matt Bryant connected from 49-yards out just as the halftime clock expired and the game was tied, 3-3.

On the opening drive of the second half, Bryant connected from 39 yards out to put the Falcons up 6-3. Reed would connect on two more field goals, and Bryant added another, and the game was tied, 9-9. The Falcons took over at their own 21-yard line with 1:45 left in the game, but on the first play S Troy Polamalu picked off QB Matt Ryan. The Steelers looked like they had the game in hand but Reed's 40-yard field goal attempt went wide right and the game headed into overtime.

WR Hines Ward finished the game with 108 yards receiving on six catches. He became the first Steelers receiver to surpass 11,000 yards receiving, and he broke the record for most 100-yard receiving games in team history (26), passing former WR John Stallworth.

The Steelers' defense held the Falcons to only 58 yards rushing and posted two sacks (LB LaMarr Woodley, LB James Harrison) and an interception.

Game #2
Pittsburgh 19, Tennessee 11
Sept. 19, 2010
LP Field (69,143)

NASHVILLE — The Steelers improved to 2-0 on the year with a dominating defensive performance against the Tennessee Titans at LP Field. The Steelers' 19-11 victory was only the second win for the Steelers in 10 tries in the state of Tennessee.

The Steelers wasted no time scoring, using a little trickery to return the opening kickoff for a touchdown. RB Mewelde Moore took the ball at the two-yard line and handed it off to rookie WR Antonio Brown, who took it 89 yards for the touchdown. In his first career game, Brown became the first Steelers rookie to return a kick for a touchdown since WR Antwaan Randle El returned a 99-yard kickoff in 2002.

Two drives later, the Titans marched 39 yards to the Steelers two-yard line before K Rob Bironas connected from 21 yards out and cut the lead 7-3.

The Titans drove to the Steelers' 16-yard line on their next drive, but S Troy Polamalu picked off QB Vince Young in the end zone. The interception was the first of four turnovers the Steelers forced in the first half. On the ensuing drive K Jeff Reed connected from 36 yards out to put the Steelers up 10-3. RB Chris Johnson's fumble allowed the Steelers to capitalize right before halftime, and Reed connected from 34 yards out to put the Steelers up 13-3.

Neither team scored in the third quarter, and after Young committed his fourth turnover of the game he was pulled for QB Kerry Collins. CB Bryant McFadden picked off Collins on his second pass attempt. Reed connected from 25 and 27 yards out in the fourth quarter, his third and fourth field goals of the game and the Steelers were up 19-3.

The Titans made it interesting late in the fourth quarter. Collins found WR Nate Washington for a two-yard touchdown and WR Kenny Britt for the two-point conversion. The Titans recovered their onside kick attempt and were in Steelers' territory, but the defense stopped the Titans at the 41-yard line as time expired.

Though the Steelers couldn't get their offense going, (127 total yards) the defense forced seven turnovers (four fumbles, three interceptions) and held Johnson to only 34 yards rushing. LB James Harrison had two sacks, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovery.

Game #3
Pittsburgh 38, Tampa Bay 13
Raymond James Stadium (61,036)

TAMPA — The Pittsburgh Steelers offense exploded for four first-half touchdowns and never looked back, beating the Tampa Bay Buccaneers 38-13 at Raymond James Stadium. The Steelers improve to 3-0 while Tampa Bay fell to 2-1.

QB Charlie Batch, making his first start since December 30, 2007, was picked off on the Steelers' first drive of the game. On the ensuing drive, K Connor Barth connected from 40 yards to put the Buccaneers up 3-0.

The Steelers would respond on their next drive. Batch found WR Mike Wallace deep in the end zone for a 46-yard touchdown. The Buccaneers cut the lead to 7-6 on Barth's 24-yard field goal early in the second quarter, but the Steelers would score the next 31 points.

Midway through the second quarter, the Steelers faced a third-and-six from the Tampa Bay 48-yard line. On that play, Batch scrambled for 24 yards, the longest run of his career, to give the Steelers a key first-down. Two plays later RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from three yards out to put the Steelers up 14-6. Mendenhall finished the game with 19 carries for 143 yards and one touchdown.

Batch found Wallace again for a 41-yard touchdown in the second quarter. It was Wallace's second career game with two receiving touchdowns. Wallace finished the game with three catches for 100 yards and two touchdowns.

Just before the half, Batch threw his third touchdown, a nine-yard strike to WR Hines Ward to put the Steelers up 28-6. Batch finished the game 12-of-17 for 186 yards, three touchdowns and two interceptions.

K Jeff Reed connected from 24 yards near the end of the third quarter to put the Steelers up 31-6, which were the first points Tampa Bay had allowed in the second-half all season. On the first play of the fourth quarter, DE Brett Keisel picked off QB Josh Freeman and returned it 79 yards for a touchdown. It was Keisel's first career interception and first career touchdown in his nine seasons in the NFL.

The Steelers offense tallied more than 200 rushing yards and nearly 400 yards of total offense. The Steelers defense continued its stellar play, holding Tampa Bay to only 74 yards rushing while forcing two turnovers and posting four sacks.

Game #4
Baltimore 17, Pittsburgh 14
Oct. 3, 2010
Heinz Field (64,729)

PITTSBURGH — QB Joe Flacco found WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh for an 18-yard touchdown pass with 36 seconds left in the game to beat the Pittsburgh Steelers 17-14 at Heinz Field. The Steelers fell to 3-1 heading into their bye week, while the Ravens improved to 3-1 with the victory.

A missed 46-yard field goal by K Billy Cundiff set up the Steelers first score in the game. QB Charlie Batch led the Steelers on a seven-play, 52-yard drive that was capped off by a one-yard touchdown run by RB Rashard Mendenhall.

The Ravens marched 78 yards on eight plays on their first drive of the second quarter. RB Willis McGahee scored from nine yards out to tie the game at 7-7. The Ravens capitalized on the Steelers offensive struggles and took a 10-7 halftime lead on Cundiff's 36-yard field goal as time expired.

The Steelers defense turned up the heat in the third quarter forcing two turnovers. LB James Harrison forced a McGahee fumble that put the Steelers at the Raven's 27-yard line. But Batch was sacked for a seven-yard loss on third down, and K Jeff Reed's 49-yard field goal attempt hit the right crossbar.

Near the end of the third quarter CB Ike Taylor picked off Flacco, and the Steelers took over at the Baltimore 33-yard line. The Steelers though could not move the ball and Reed's 45-yard field goal try went wide left.

The Steelers forced the Ravens to punt on their ensuing drive and took over at their own seven-yard line. The Steelers marched the ball 93 yards on 13 plays to set up Mendenhall's seven-yard touchdown run, his second of the day. Mendenhall finished with 25 carries for 79 yards and two touchdowns.

On Baltimore's next drive, the Steelers defense stopped them on a fourth-and-goal from the two-yard line, and it appeared the Steelers could run out the clock. However, the Steelers committed two false-start penalties and did not get a first down. After a Daniel Sepulveda punt, the Ravens took over at the Steelers' 40-yard line.

The Steelers offense really struggled to move the ball against the Ravens defense. For the first time all season the Steelers had less than 100 yards rushing and the 126 passing yards are the second-lowest total in the last two seasons.

Game #5
Pittsburgh 28, Cleveland 10
Oct. 17, 2010
Heinz Field (65,168)

PITTSBURGH — In his first game back since serving his four-game suspension, QB Ben Roethlisberger threw three touchdown passes to beat the Cleveland Browns, 28-10, at Heinz Field. The Steelers improved to 4-1 on the season, while the Browns fell to 1-5.

On the Browns opening drive of the game, rookie QB Colt McCoy drove to the Steelers 45-yard line. After being sacked by LB LaMarr Woodley, McCoy was intercepted by S Ryan Clark on the next play. The Steelers took over and marched to the Cleveland 14-yard line. Rookie CB Joe Haden though picked off Roethlisberger and returned it 62 yards to set up the Browns first score. K Phil Dawson connected from 39 yards and the Browns led 3-0.

The Steelers though would respond on their ensuing drive. Roethlisberger led the offense on an 11-play, 81-yard drive that was capped off by a 29-yard touchdown pass to WR Mike Wallace. The Steelers would take that 7-3 lead into halftime.

Clinging to their slim lead midway through the third quarter, the Steelers took over at their own four-yard line. Five plays later, the Steelers grabbed a 14-3 lead on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger to WR Hines Ward. On the drive Roethlisberger found Wallace for a 50-yarder and TE Heath Miller for 36 yards.

WR Chansi Stuckey's muffed punt set the Steelers up at the Cleveland 13-yard line midway through the fourth quarter. RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from two yards out and the Steelers increased their lead 21-3. But the Browns responded quickly on their next drive. McCoy found TE Benjamin Watson for a 12-yard touchdown, and the Browns cut the lead 21-10.

The Steelers recovered Cleveland's onside-kick attempt but went three-and-out, and were forced to punt. Colt McCoy though was picked off by LB Lawrence Timmons and he returned it to the Cleveland 18-yard line. Timmons finished the game with two sacks and an interception. Three plays later Roethlisberger found Miller for a 14-yard touchdown, his first of the season.

The Steelers defense continued its stellar play. It had six sacks, two interceptions and one forced fumble. The offense had its best showing thus far in the 2010 season, finishing with a season-high in total yards (378) and passing yards (257). For the second time this season, the offensive line did not allow a sack.

Game #6
Pittsburgh 23, Miami 22
Oct. 24, 2010
Sun Life Stadium (69,867)

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. — K Jeff Reed's 18-yard field goal with 2:26 left in the game sealed the 23-22 victory for the Steelers against the Miami Dolphins at Sun Life Stadium. With the win the Steelers improved to 5-1, including 3-0 on the road. The Dolphins fell to 3-3.

The Steelers got off to a shaky start fumbling the ball twice on their first two possessions. WR Emmanuel Sanders was stripped on the opening kickoff and the Dolphins took over at the Steelers' 22-yard line. K Dan Carpenter connected from 39 yards out and the Dolphins led 3-0. On the Steelers' ensuing drive QB Ben Roethlisberger fumbled as he was being sacked and the Dolphins took over at the Pittsburgh 13-yard line. Carpenter would connect from 23 yards out and the Dolphins led 6-0.

The Steelers' offense would settle down and finally got on the board early in the second quarter. Reed's 22-yard field goal cut the lead 6-3, and on the Dolphins' next drive LB James Farrior recovered a Dolphins' fumble to set the Steelers up in Miami territory. A few plays later, Roethlisberger found WR Hines Ward for a 21-yard touchdown to put the Steelers up 10-6. Ward finished with seven catches for a game-high 131 yards and one touchdown.

Midway through the second quarter the Steelers led 10-9 when Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace streaking down the field for a 53-yard touchdown pass. The Dolphins would respond on their next drive. QB Chad Henne found WR Davone Bess for a 26-yard touchdown, and the Steelers led 17-16 at halftime.

Reed's 39-yard field goal in the third quarter put the Steelers up 20-16. But Miami kept responding. Carpenter connected from 37 yards in the third quarter and from 40 yards in the fourth quarter and the Dolphins led 22-20 with only five minutes remaining in the game. Carpenter finished with a career-high five field goals made.

Trailing 22-20, Sanders took a kickoff and returned it to the Miami 48-yard line. Roethlisberger led the Steelers' on an eight-play, 47-yard drive that ended with Reed's field goal. Roethlisberger finished the game 19-of-27 for a season-high 302 yards and two touchdowns.

Game #7
New Orleans 20, Pittsburgh 10
Oct. 31, 2010
Louisiana Superdome (70,011)

NEW ORLEANS — QB Drew Brees' eight-yard touchdown toss to WR Lance Moore with 2:37 left in the fourth quarter sealed the 20-10 victory for the New Orleans Saints over the Steelers at the Louisiana Superdome. Steelers fell to 5-2 on the season with the loss, while the Saints improved to 5-3.

Both teams struggled moving the football as neither one scored in the first quarter. K Jeff Reed got the Steelers on the board early in the second quarter connecting from 19-yards out for a 3-0 lead. The Saints though would tie the game 3-3 with only eight seconds left before halftime on K Garrett Hartley's 31-yard field goal.

On the Saints' first possession of the second half, Brees led the offense on a 12-play, 51-yard drive that was capped off by Hartley's 23-yard field goal that increased their lead 6-3. Early in the fourth quarter Brees found WR Marques Colston for a 16-yard touchdown to put the Saints up 13-3. However, on the Steelers' ensuing drive RB Rashard Mendenhall found a seam and went 38 yards untouched into the end zone to cut the lead to 13-10. Mendenhall finished the game with 15 carries for 71 yards and one touchdown.

The Saints looked poised to add to their lead on their next drive when Brees found WR Robert Meachem for a 50-yard gain, which set the Saints up at the Steelers' 26-yard line. But two plays later, CB Bryant McFadden sacked Brees and forced a fumble that was recovered by LB LaMarr Woodley, and the Steelers took over at the Saints' 27-yard line.

The Steelers had the momentum and were marching into Saints' territory, but a costly turnover sealed the Steelers' fate. QB Ben Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for 20-yard gain, but Miller was hit hard and fumbled the football. The Saints then marched 55 yards for the game-clinching touchdown pass by Brees. Brees finished the game 34-of-44 for 305 yards and two touchdowns.

The Steelers' rush defense continued its dominance, allowing a season-low 30 yards rushing. The defense as a whole had two sacks, a forced fumble and an interception. The Steelers' offense though struggled, only having 279 total yards (108 rushing, 195 passing).

Game #8
Pittsburgh 27, Cincinnati 21
Nov. 8, 2010
Paul Brown Stadium (65,626)

CINCINNATI — WR Antwaan Randle El's 39-yard touchdown pass to WR Mike Wallace early in the fourth quarter sealed the Steelers' 27-21 victory over the Cincinnati Bengals at Paul Brown Stadium. With the win the Steelers improved to 6-0 on Monday Night Football under Mike Tomlin, and for the second consecutive year the Steelers started their season 6-2. The Bengals fell to 2-6.

LB Jason Worilds' fumble recovery on Cincinnati's opening kickoff set the Steelers up for their first score. RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from one-yard out and the Steelers were up 7-0. On the Bengals' ensuing drive, CB William Gay blocked a punt to set the Steelers up for their second score. K Jeff Reed connected from 25-yards out, and the Steelers increased their lead 10-0.

The Bengals though would strike after a rare fumble by WR Hines Ward. QB Carson Palmer found WR Terrell Owens for a 19-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead 10-7. Near the end of the half LB Lawrence Timmons picked off Palmer and the Steelers' took over at their own 48-yard line. QB Ben Roethlisberger led the offense on a six-play, 52-yard drive that was capped off by an eight-yard touchdown pass to Ward to put the Steelers up 17-7.

A missed field goal by K Mike Nugent allowed the Steelers to increase their lead going into halftime. Reed connected from 53-yards out and the Steelers led 20-7 at the break. It was Reed's longest field goal of the season, and tied his career long.

The Steelers went up 27-7 on the Randle El touchdown pass, but the game was far from over. Palmer led the Bengals on a five-play, 66-yard drive that ended with a 27-yard pass to Owens. Owens finished the game with 10 catches for 141 yards and two touchdowns. And S Roy Williams picked off Roethlisberger to set up RB Cedric Benson's one-yard touchdown run that cut the lead to 27-21. The Bengals had a chance to win the game on their last drive of the game. But on a fourth-and-five play, WR Jordan Shipley dropped Palmer's pass and the Steelers were victorious.

The Steelers defense had four sacks and held the Bengals to only 54 rushing yards. The offense totaled 314 total yards, and the special teams had a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and a blocked punt.

Game #9
New England 39, Pittsburgh 26
Nov. 14, 2010
Heinz Field (64,359)

PITTSBURGH — QB Tom Brady threw three touchdown passes, all to TE Rob Gronkowski, and the Patriots beat the Steelers 39-26 at Heinz Field. The Steelers fell to 6-3 on the season while the Patriots improved to 7-2.

New England wasted no time getting on the board, driving 70 yards on eight plays on their first drive as Brady found Gronkowski for a 19-yard touchdown. Near the end of the first quarter, K Shayne Graham connected from 31-yards out to increase the Patriots' lead to 10-0.

The Steelers got on the board with five minutes left in the half when K Jeff Reed's 22-yard field goal cut the lead to 10-3 at the half.

Brady found Gronkowski again in the third quarter, this time for a nine-yard score, and the Patriots led 17-3. And with less than a minute left in the third quarter, Brady scored from three yards out to put the Patriots up 23-3. Brady finished the game 30-of-43 for 350 yards with three touchdowns and one rushing touchdown.

The Steelers responded early in the fourth quarter as QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Emmanuel Sanders for his first career touchdown reception. The six-yard score cut the lead 23-10. The Steelers forced the Patriots to punt on their next drive and took over at their own 11-yard line. Two plays later, S James Sanders picked off Roethlisberger and returned it 32 yards for a touchdown.

Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 15-yard touchdown midway through the fourth quarter to cut the lead to 29-18. But Brady went back to Gronkowski on their next drive for a 25-yard touchdown pass to go up 36-18. Roethlisberger found Wallace again, this time for a 33-yard touchdown on the Steelers' ensuing drive to cut the lead to 36-26, but it was too little, too late. Graham would make a 36-yard field foal with less than two minutes remaining to give the Patriots a 39-26 win.

The Steelers' offense had a season-high 425 yards of total offense, including a season-high 387 passing yards by Roethlisberger. He finished the game 30-of-49 for 387 yards with three touchdowns and one interception. The Steelers' defense had its worst performance of their 2010 season, giving up season highs in rushing yards (103), passing yards (350) and total yards (453).

Game #10
Pittsburgh 35, Oakland 3
Nov. 21, 2010
Heinz Field (64,987)

PITTSBURGH — Behind dominating offensive and defensive performances, the Steelers defeated the Oakland Raiders 35-3 at Heinz Field. The 32-point victory is the largest margin in the series' history by either team. The Steelers improved to 7-3 on the year, while the Raiders fell to 5-5.

Oakland jumped out to an early 3-0 lead on K Sebastian Janikowski's 41-yard field goal in the first quarter, but it would be the only points the Raiders would score all day. The Steelers grabbed a 7-3 lead on RB Rashard Mendenhall's five-yard touchdown run early in the second quarter. It was Mendenhall's career-best eighth rushing touchdown on the season. Mendenhall finished the game with 59 yards rushing.

QB Ben Roethlisberger gave the Steelers a 14-3 lead late in the second quarter with a 16-yard touchdown run, his first of the season. It was the first rushing touchdown this season for the Steelers scored by anyone other than Mendenhall. Roethlisberger finished the game with 55 yards rushing on three carries.

With less than two minutes remaining in the first half, Roethlisberger found WR Emmanuel Sanders for a 22-yard touchdown to put the Steelers up 21-3 at halftime. It marked Sanders' second consecutive game with a touchdown reception.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 52-yard touchdown to give the Steelers a 28-3 lead. Wallace finished with a game-high 116 yards receiving and it marked his third straight game with more than 100 yards receiving and at least one touchdown reception. Wallace tied the team record for most consecutive games with at least 100 yards receiving, which is shared with WR Hines Ward in 2002.

Roethlisberger then found RB Isaac Redman for a 16-yard touchdown pass, which gave the Steelers the 35-3 final. Roethlisberger finished the game 18-of-29 for 275 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions.

The Steelers offense racked up a season-high 431 yards of total offense (162 rushing and 269 passing). The Steelers defense produced six sacks, two interceptions and one fumble recovery. The defense only allowed 182 yards of total offense (65 rushing and 121 passing). The Steelers though struggled with penalties, setting a franchise-record with 163 penalty yards.

Game #11
Pittsburgh 19, Buffalo 16 (OT)
Nov. 28, 2010
Ralph Wilson Stadium (69,642)

ORCHARD PARK, N.Y. — K Shaun Suisham's 41-yard field goal with 2:14 left in overtime gave the Steelers the 19-16 victory against the Buffalo Bills at Ralph Wilson Stadium. The Steelers are now 8-3 on the year, including a 5-1 record on the road. The Bills fell to 2-9.

The Steelers wasted no time getting on the board, marching 78 yards on 13 plays on their opening drive. RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from one-yard out to put the Steelers up 7-0. Mendenhall finished the game with a career-high 36 carries for a season-high 151 yards and a touchdown.

Suisham connected on a 45-yard field goal early in the second quarter to put the Steelers ahead,10-0. With only three seconds left in the first half, Suisham connected from 46 yards to put the Steelers up 13-0 at halftime. Suisham finished the game a perfect 4-for-4 on field goals, all coming from at least 40-yards out.

The Bills responded late in the third quarter when QB Ryan Fitzpatrick found RB Fred Jackson for what appeared to be a short gain. However, Jackson broke through the secondary and into the end zone for 65-yard touchdown reception.

The Bills tied the game 13-13 with a pair of field goals from K Rian Lindell early in the fourth quarter. Lindell connected from 29 yards and then 32 yards only two minutes after to tie the game. The Steelers went ahead, 16-13, midway through the fourth quarter on Suisham's 48-yard field goal.

The Bills looked poised to take the lead with only three minutes left in the game. Fitzpatrick had the Bills at the Steelers' 12-yard line, but S Troy Polamalu picked off Fitzpatrick and it appeared that the Steelers could run out the clock. Costly penalties forced the Steelers to punt. The Bills then drove to the Steelers' 31-yard line and Lindell booted a 49-yard field goal to force overtime.

The Bills won the coin toss in overtime and elected to receive. Buffalo had a golden opportunity with its second possession in overtime, but a crucial dropped touchdown pass by WR Stevie Johnson forced the Bills to punt. The Steelers took over at their 20-yard line and marched it to the Buffalo 22-yard line where Suisham nailed the game-winning field goal.

Game #12
Pittsburgh 13, Baltimore 10
Dec. 5, 2010
M&T Bank Stadium (71,418)

BALTIMORE — QB Ben Roethlisberger's nine-yard touchdown pass to RB Isaac Redman with 2:51 left in the game sealed the 13-10 victory for the Pittsburgh Steelers against the Baltimore Ravens at M&T Bank Stadium. The Steelers improved to 9-3, first place in the AFC North. The Ravens fell to 8-4.

Both teams struggled moving the ball throughout most of the first quarter until the Ravens faced a third-and-15 from their own three-yard line. QB Joe Flacco then found WR Anquan Boldin for a 61-yard completion that set the Ravens up at the Steelers' 36-yard line. Flacco then connected with Boldin for a 14-yard touchdown pass, capping off a 10-play, 92-yard drive to put the Ravens up 7-0. Flacco finished the game with 266 yards passing and one touchdown.

Neither team scored again before halftime and the Ravens took their 7-0 lead into the break. The Steelers finally got on the board early in the third quarter when K Shaun Suisham connected from 45 yards out that cut the lead 7-3.

The Ravens though struck on their next drive on K Billy Cundiff's 24-yard field goal to put the Ravens up 10-3. Suisham's 19-yard field goal cut the Ravens' lead to 10-6 early in the fourth quarter. Suisham finished the game a perfect 2-for-2 on field goals and 1-for-1 on PATs.

The Steelers kept forcing the Ravens to punt but they were unable to capitalize until late in the game. On a second-and-five from Baltimore's 43-yard line S Troy Polamalu sacked Flacco and forced a fumble that was recovered by LB LaMarr Woodley. The Steelers took over at the Ravens' nine-yard line and, three plays later, Roethlisberger found Redman for the game-winning touchdown. Roethlisberger finished the game with 253 yards passing with one touchdown and one interception.

The Steelers defense had a very solid performance, posting four sacks, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery while holding the Ravens to only 269 yards of total offense (43 rushing, 226 passing). It was the third time this season the Steelers held their opponent to less than 50 rushing yards.

Game #13
Pittsburgh 23, Cincinnati 7
Dec. 12, 2010
Heinz Field (57,501)

PITTSBURGH — Behind a strong defensive performance, including two interceptions returned for touchdowns, the Steelers beat the Cincinnati Bengals 23-7 at Heinz Field. The Steelers improved to 10-3 on the season and remained in first place in the AFC North, while the Bengals fell to 2-10.

Cincinnati jumped out to an early 7-0 lead on their first drive of the game when QB Carson Palmer found OT Andrew Whitworth for a one-yard touchdown pass. The Bengals would not score another point as the Steelers' defense took over the game.

The Steelers tied the game 7-7 when S Troy Polamalu picked off Palmer's pass and returned it 45 yards for a touchdown late in the first half. It was Polamalu's second career interception return for a touchdown. K Shaun Suisham added a 23-yard field goal with 21 seconds left in the first half and the Steelers took a 10-7 lead into halftime.

Suisham added a 35-yard field goal on the Steelers' opening drive of the second half to make it 13-7. And on the Bengals' ensuing drive, LB LaMarr Woodley intercepted a Palmer pass and returned it 14 yards for a touchdown. It was Woodley's second interception of the season and his first career interception return for a touchdown. It also marked the first time the Steelers had two interception returns for a touchdown in a game since November 22, 1998.

Suisham connected from 41 yards late in the fourth quarter to put the Steelers up 23-7. The Bengals looked as if they were going to cut into the Steelers' lead on a first-and-10 from the Pittsburgh 16-yard line, but Polamalu picked off Palmer again to seal the victory. It was Polamalu's team-leading sixth interception of the season.

The Steelers had 354 yards of total offense (231 passing, 123 rushing). QB Ben Roethlisberger finished the game 21-of-33 for 258 yards and RB Rashard Mendenhall had a game-high 66 yards rushing.

The Steelers defense stole the show with three sacks, three interceptions and by holding the Bengals to only 190 yards of total offense.

Game #14
New York Jets 22, Pittsburgh 17
Dec. 19, 2010
Heinz Field (62,568)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers could not score a touchdown on a third-and-goal from the 10-yard line on the final play of the game and lost to the New York Jets, 22-17, at Heinz Field. Though the loss put the Steelers at 10-4, the team still clinched a playoff spot.

The Jets wasted no time scoring as WR Brad Smith took the opening kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown to give them the 7-0 lead. The Steelers tied the game midway through the second quarter as QB Ben Roethlisberger tossed a nine-yard touchdown to TE Matt Spaeth to cap a 16-play, 96-yard drive, the longest drive allowed by the Jets this season. It was Spaeth's first touchdown this season.

K Nick Folk put the Jets up 10-7 late in the first half with his 25-yard field goal. The Steelers tied the game, 10-10, with 33 seconds left in the half on K Shaun Suisham's 42-yard field goal. It was Suisham's 15th straight field goal made between 40-49 yards.

On the first drive of the second half, RB Rashard Mendenhall finished the drive with a two-yard rushing touchdown to give the Steelers their first lead of the game, 17-10. It was Mendenhall's team-leading 10th touchdown of the season. He finished with a game-high 99 yards rushing on 17 carries and one touchdown.

The Jets responded on their ensuing drive as QB Mark Sanchez scored on a seven-yard run with 5:14 left in the third quarter. Folk added a 34-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to put the Jets up 20-17.

The Steelers took over from their own two-yard line with 2:38 remaining in game, but on the first play DE Jason Taylor tackled RB Mewelde Moore in the end zone for a safety. After forcing the Jets to punt the Steelers still had time to win the game. The Steelers had two chances in the final 10 seconds to score, but two incomplete passes gave the Jets the victory.

The Steelers finished with 378 yards of total offense (146 rushing, 232 passing) to the Jets' 276 (106 rushing, 170 passing). The Steelers also had 25 first downs to New York's 17.

Game #15
Pittsburgh 27, Carolina 3
Dec. 23, 2010
Heinz Field (61,748)

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers moved one step closer to winning the AFC North with a dominating 27-3 victory over the Carolina Panthers at Heinz Field. The Steelers improved to 11-4 on the season while the Panthers fell to 2-13.

The Steelers jumped out to an early 3-0 lead on their first drive of the game as K Shaun Suisham connected on a 26-yard field goal with 3:47 left in the first quarter. The Steelers added to that lead early in the second quarter when QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 43-yard touchdown strike.

It was Wallace's team-leading ninth touchdown of the season and it marked the seventh time in team history that the duo has combined for a touchdown of at least 40 yards, tying the team record with Bubby Brister and Louis Lipps. Wallace finished the game with 104 yards receiving with one touchdown, his sixth 100-yard receiving game of the season, tying him for second-most in team history with Yancey Thigpen (1997).

The Steelers took a 17-0 lead with 1:54 remaining in the first half as RB Rashard Mendenhall scored on a one-yard touchdown run, his team-leading 11th rushing touchdown of the season. His 11 rushing touchdowns are tied for the fourth-most in team history for a single season.

Suisham added a 29-yard field goal with 39 seconds left in the first half to put the Steelers up 20-0 at halftime. Roethlisberger gave the Steelers their final score in the third quarter as he rushed for a one-yard touchdown, his second of the season and 14th of his career. Roethlisberger finished the game 22-of-32 for 320 yards with one touchdown pass, one rushing touchdown and no interceptions.

K John Kasay's 27-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter prevented the shutout and made it 27-3, the eventual final score. The three points though were the lowest the Steelers had allowed all season. The Steelers finished with 408 yards of total offense (115 rushing, 293 passing) while the defense held the Panthers to a season-low 119 yards (74 rushing, 45 passing), had four sacks and forced two turnovers.

Game #16
Pittsburgh 41, Cleveland 9
Jan. 2, 2011
Cleveland Browns Stadium (68,303)

CLEVELAND — The Steelers finished the regular season with a 12-4 record and captured the AFC North Division title with a 41-9 win over the Cleveland Browns. The Steelers have an NFL-best 20 division titles since 1970.

S Troy Polamalu returned to the starting lineup after missing two games and picked off QB Colt McCoy on the Browns' opening drive. On the Steelers' first offensive play of the game, QB Ben Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace streaking down the field for a 56-yard score. It marked Wallace's career-best 10th receiving touchdown of the season and the eighth time Roethlisberger and Wallace have connected for a touchdown of at least 40 yards, the most in team history.

RB Rashard Mendenhall increased the Steelers' lead 14-0 with a one-yard rushing touchdown midway through the first quarter. The Browns though trimmed the lead to 14-3 on K Phil Dawson's 19-yard field goal early in the second quarter.

However on the Steelers' ensuing drive, Mendenhall scored on another one-yard rushing touchdown, his team-leading 13th of the season.

S Ryan Clark added to Cleveland's frustrations with an interception of his own that set up Roethlisberger's four-yard touchdown pass to TE Heath Miller. It was Miller's second receiving touchdown of the season. Prior to halftime, K Shaun Suisham put the Steelers up 31-3 at the break with a 41-yard field goal.

The Steelers increased their lead 38-3 midway through the third quarter when WR Antwaan Randle El found WR Hines Ward for a three-yard touchdown pass. It was Randle El's second touchdown pass of the season. It was Ward's fifth receiving touchdown of the season and 83rd of his career.

Suisham added a 24-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter to increase the lead to 41-3 before McCoy closed the scoring with a 20-yard touchdown pass to WR Brian Robiskie to cut the lead to 41-9.

For the second consecutive game, the Steelers' offense finished with more than 400 total yards (100 rushing, 318 passing). The Steelers' defense had four sacks and had three interceptions. The 21 interceptions on the season are the most by the team since 1996 when they had 23.

AFC Divisional Playoff Game

Pittsburgh 31, Baltimore 24
Jan. 15, 2011
Heinz Field (64,879)

PITTSBURGH — Down 14 points at halftime, the Steelers rallied to score 24 second-half points to beat the Baltimore Ravens in the AFC Divisional Playoff Game. With the victory, Pittsburgh improved to 3-0 all-time against the Ravens in the postseason. The Steelers advanced to their 15th AFC Championship game since 1970 and for the fifth time since 2001.

The Steelers got off to a hot start as RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from one-yard out on the Steelers' first drive of the game. It was Mendenhall's first career postseason rushing touchdown. The Ravens responded with a 10-play drive that was capped off with a 14-yard touchdown run by RB Ray Rice.

The Ravens went up 14-7 when DE Cory Redding returned QB Ben Roethlisberger's fumble 13 yards for a touchdown. And following another Steelers' turnover, QB Joe Flacco found TE Todd Heap for a four-yard touchdown and a 21-7 Ravens' lead at halftime.

Early in the third quarter the Steelers defense took over the game, forcing turnovers on three consecutive Ravens' possessions. After a fumble by Rice, Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for a nine-yard score to cut the lead 21-14. S Ryan Clark then posted his first career postseason interception, picking off Flacco to set the Steelers up in Ravens' territory. Roethlisberger then found WR Hines Ward for an eight-yard touchdown and the game was tied 21-21. Roethlisberger finished the game with 226 yards passing with two touchdowns and no interceptions.

Another Ravens fumble led to K Shaun Suisham's 35-yard field goal, which gave the Steelers a 24-21 lead. But the Ravens tied the game on K Billy Cundiff's 24-yard field goal late in the fourth quarter. The Steelers took over with less than four minutes left in the game, and they faced a third-and-19 from their own 38-yard line. Roethlisberger found rookie WR Antonio Brown streaking down the sideline for a 58-yard completion to set up Mendenhall's game-winning one-yard touchdown run, his second of the game.

The Steelers defense limited the Ravens to just 126 yards, the second-lowest total in team postseason history. The defense had five sacks, including three by LB James Harrison, forced three turnovers and held the Ravens to just 28 yards in the second half.

AFC Championship Game

Pittsburgh 24, New York Jets 19
Jan. 23, 2011
Heinz Field (66,662)

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers advanced to their eighth Super Bowl with a 24-19 victory over the New York Jets in the AFC Championship at Heinz Field. The eight trips to the Super Bowl are tied for the most in NFL history with the Dallas Cowboys, and the Steelers' eight wins in an AFC Championship Game are the most in conference history.

The Steelers grabbed a 7-0 lead on the opening drive of the game as RB Rashard Mendenhall capped off the 15-play drive with a one-yard rushing touchdown. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 121 yards rushing, which is the sixth-most in team postseason history.

K Shaun Suisham added to the Steelers' lead with his 20-yard field goal in the second quarter to make it 10-0, and with two minutes left in the half, QB Ben Roethlisberger scored on a two-yard touchdown run to give the Steelers a 17-0 lead. It was Roethlisberger's third career postseason rushing touchdown.

On the Jets' ensuing drive, CB Ike Taylor posted a sack and forced fumble, both career firsts in the postseason, and CB William Gay returned the fumble 19 yards to make it 24-0. It was Gay's first career postseason touchdown and the first defensive touchdown for Pittsburgh in the postseason since LB James Harrison's 100-yard interception return for touchdown in Super Bowl XLIII.

The Jets got on the board just prior to halftime when K Nick Folk connected from 42 yards out to trim the lead to 24-3. And on the Jets' first drive of the second half, QB Mark Sanchez found WR Santonio Holmes for a 45-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 24-10. Following a goal-line stand by the Steelers' defense, Roethlisberger fumbled the first snap and was tackled in the endzone for a safety.

On the Jets' next drive, Sanchez found WR Jericho Cotchery for a four-yard touchdown to make it 24-19 with three minutes left in the game. The Steelers converted on two key third-downs on their ensuing drive, including the game-winning first down reception by WR Antonio Brown to seal their second AFC Championship in the last three seasons.

Pittsburgh improved to 5-1 in the postseason under Head Coach Mike Tomlin with the victory. Tomlin joined Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs as the only head coaches to reach two Super Bowls in their first four seasons as a head coach.

Super Bowl XLV

Green Bay 31, Pittsburgh 25
Feb. 6, 2011
Cowboys Stadium (103,219)

ARLINGTON, Texas — The Steelers could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell short in their quest for their seventh Super Bowl victory, losing to the Green Bay Packers 31-25 in Super Bowl XLV.

The Packers struck first when QB Aaron Rodgers found WR Jordy Nelson for a 29-yard touchdown pass late in the first quarter to give Green Bay the 7-0 lead. Only 24 seconds later, Steelers' QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by S Nick Collins, who returned it 37 yards for a touchdown to give the Packers a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Steelers scored early in the second quarter when K Shaun Suisham connected from 33 yards to cut the Packers' lead to 14-3. On the Steelers' next possession, Roethlisberger was picked off again, and the Packers' ensuing drive, Rodgers found WR Greg Jennings for a 21-yard touchdown to put Green Bay ahead 21-3.

The Steelers would cut the lead to 21-10 when WR Hines Ward caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger late in the first half. Ward finished the game with seven catches for 78 yards and one touchdown.

Pittsburgh cut the lead to 21-17 in the third quarter when RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from eight yards. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 63 yards rushing and one touchdown.

The Steelers' defense forced the Packers to punt on every third-quarter possession, and the offense looked to take the lead. However, on the first play of the fourth quarter, Mendenhall fumbled and Green Bay recovered. The Packers marched down the field and Rodgers found Jennings again, this time for an eight-yard score, increasing their lead to 28-17. Rodgers finished the game with 304 yards passing with three touchdowns and no interceptions.

With 7:34 left in the fourth quarter, Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 25-yard touchdown pass, and with a two-point conversion, the Steelers were only down 28-25.

On the Packers' next drive, K Mason Crosby connected from 23 yards out to give Green Bay a six-point lead. The Steelers still had time, taking over with two minutes left in the game, but they failed to convert a fourth-and-five from their own 33-yard line, allowing Green Bay to run out the clock.

1947 NFL Divisional Game
Philadelphia 21, Pittsburgh 0
December 21, 1947

PHILADELPHIA — The Eagles of coach Earle (Greasy) Neale were on the rise, destined to play the next three NFL title games, whereas Jock Sutherland's Steelers—the last of the Single-Wing offenses to make the playoffs—would have only one winning season in the next decade and that is how each played.

The Eagles capitalized early on a Pittsburgh error. Pete Pihos blocked a punt by Bob Cifers, and the Eagles gained possession at the Steelers' 14. Two plays later, Tommy Thompson threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Steve Van Buren. The next period, Thompson went to the air again and found Jack Ferrante for 28 yards and a score that made it 14-0.

In the third quarter, the punting game again got the Steelers into trouble. Cifers outkicked his coverage and Bosh Pritchard wound his way through the Pittsburgh defense, going 79 yards for the final score.

Going into the game the Steelers were torn by controversy. The players demanded an extra paycheck for the playoff. Although they got their money, they outraged their coach Jock Sutherland, who proceeded to hold his pre-game practices outdoors in the snow and ice.

1962 Playoff Bowl
Detroit 17, Pittsburgh 10
January 6, 1963

MIAMI — The Steelers and Lions met in the third game of what was known as the Playoff Bowl. From 1960-66, the Playoff Bowl was played in Miami, Fla., consisting of the runners-up in each division. Detroit won its third consecutive Playoff Bowl, a 17-10 victory over the Steelers.

In what was a very physical game, the Steelers lost three key starters throughout the game. Halfback Willie Daniel sustained a concussion and a broken jaw, eventual Hall-of-Fame fullback John Henry Johnson left the game with a concussion, and tackle Dan James fractured his leg.

The Lions had the only scoring opportunity of the first quarter, however, a Wayne Walker 27-yard field goal attempt was wide left. He had a second chance in the second quarter and connected to give the Lions a 3-0 lead. The Steelers answered with a five-yard touchdown run by Dick Hoak, giving them a 7-3 lead. Detroit scored on their following drive thanks to a 20-yard pass from Milt Plum to Ken Webb, to give the Lions a 10-7 lead at halftime.

The Steelers tied the game halfway through the third quarter when Lou Michaels kicked a 40-yard field goal.

Detroit clinched the game with an 80-yard, four-play drive. Plum hit Dan Lewis for a gain of 73 yards. Then Ken Webb clinched the victory for the Lions with a three-yard touchdown run.

Bobby Layne replaced Ed Brown at quarterback with 7:46 remaining in the game and almost completed a Steelers' comeback. However, his effort fell short. Layne did complete 4-of-8 passes for 69 yards and one interception.

1972 AFC Divisional Playoff
Pittsburgh 13, Oakland 7

PITTSBURGH — Two unusual plays, one perhaps the oddest—and certainly the most controversial—in the long history of professional football, provided most of the offense in the final two minutes of what had been a tension-filled defensive struggle.

Field goals of 18 and 20 yards by Roy Gerela had given Pittsburgh a 6-0 lead. QB Ken Stabler erased it as he scrambled 30 yards on a broken play to put Oakland in front with one minute and 13 seconds remaining.

Down to their last play, the Steelers were 60 yards from the Oakland goal when rookie Franco Harris made an incredible shoe-top catch off a ricocheted pass and ran 42 yards for the TD.

The dispute on the game-winning play centered on whether the flight of the ball was altered by the contact of Oakland's Jack Tatum or the Steelers' John "Frenchy" Fuqua.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers stumbled on the last step to a Super Bowl berth when QB Bob Griese rallied the unbeaten Miami Dolphins.

Actually, the outcome may have been determined on a trick play. With the Steelers leading 7-0 by virtue of a TD the first time they had the ball, Larry Seiple ran 37 yards on a fake punt deep into Pittsburgh territory.

The play took away the Steelers' early momentum and led to the Dolphins tying score. After a field goal early in the third quarter gave Pittsburgh its last lead, Griese took over from Earl Morrall and drove his team 80 yards for the go-ahead TD.

A blocked field goal attempt paved the way for Miami's third TD. Terry Bradshaw made it necessary as he returned to the game after suffering a first quarter head injury. He completed four straight passes for 71 yards to pull his team within four points, but two interceptions ended Pittsburgh's Cinderella season.

December 22, 1973

OAKLAND, Calif. — The Raiders got a full measure of revenge for three straight losses to the Steelers, including one on the opening round of the AFC playoffs in 1972.

Oakland drove 80 yards for a touchdown the first time they had the ball and quarterback Ken Stabler mixed a strong inside running game with accurate short passes, a pattern he was to follow all afternoon.

A Steelers' touchdown late in the second quarter narrowed the halftime score to 10-7.

The Raiders added field goals on their first two third-quarter possessions. Two plays after the second one Willie Brown picked off a Terry Bradshaw pass in the flat and returned it 54 yards to put the game out of reach.

A fourth George Blanda field goal preceded Bradshaw's second touchdown pass—a 26-yarder to Frank Lewis.

1974 AFC Divisional Playoff

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers' offense took the pressure off their defensive teammates early by exploding for four second-quarter touchdowns as Terry Bradshaw played one of the finest games of his pro career.

Trailing 7-3 after young Joe Ferguson led the Bills on a well-executed 56-yard drive, the Steelers went ahead for good when Bradshaw connected with Rocky Bleier for a 27-yard scoring toss. Before the halftime intermission, Franco Harris ripped off three touchdown runs in less than five minutes to tie an NFL record and put the game out of Buffalo's reach.

Harris' middle score was set up by Lynn Swann's sensational diving catch on the Buffalo four-yard line that was the game's biggest play and probably the turning point.

The game's most crucial turnover, a Jim Braxton fumble after he had run 30 yards into Steelers' territory, preceded that Pittsburgh series.

The big halftime margin forced the Bills out of their normal ball-control offense and Ferguson was greatly handicapped as he threw 15 times in the second half against a stacked defense. While Buffalo played catch-up, the Steelers were content to run the ball. Bradshaw threw just five times in the final half.

OAKLAND, Calif. — The Steelers combined the power running of Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier with a defense that held the Raiders to an incredible 29 yards rushing and intercepted three Ken Stabler passes en route to a 24-13 victory.

The Steelers took command of the game after Stabler combined with Cliff Branch on a 38-yard touchdown pass to give the Raiders a 10-3 lead in the third quarter.

The teams had traded first half field goals. Taking the kickoff following Branch's score, the Steelers grinded out 61 yards in nine plays with Harris blasting up the middle for eight yards and the touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter. Jack Ham's second interception of the day paved the way to the Steelers' winning score. He returned it 24 yards to the Oakland nine.

Terry Bradshaw, who played another outstanding game, hit Lynn Swann in the end zone for the touchdown. The Raiders added a second field goal but it was the end of the line for them as the Steeler defense totally dominated the line of scrimmage.

J.T. Thomas' interception with just over a minute to play ended any Oakland comeback hopes. Harris followed with a 21-yard touchdown run.

PITTSBURGH — Franco Harris ran for an AFC playoff record 153 yards but it was Mel Blount's interception late in the third quarter that provided the Steelers with the impetus to overcome a 10-7 Baltimore lead, propelling the Steelers to a 28-10 victory.

Following Jack Ham's interception, the Steelers put together a 61-yard, four-play drive, highlighted by Frank Lewis' sensational one-handed 34-yard catch, to take a 7-0 lead late in the first quarter.

Playing without regular quarterback Bert Jones, the Colts used a Lloyd Mumphord interception to tie the game on Marty Domres' pass to Glenn Doughty.

Another turnover, one of four by the Steelers, a fumble by Harris at his own 19, gave the Colts a field goal and their only lead of the game. Three minutes later Blount made his steal and Bleier scored standing up on the first play.

The Pittsburgh defense stiffened, holding the Colts without a first down on their next three possessions. The Steelers put it out of reach with Terry Bradshaw's gutty two-yard touchdown run which capped a 39-yard drive.

Then Andy Russell scored on a record 93-yard fumble return following a Ham sacking of Jones who had returned at the start of the final quarter.

1975 AFC Championship

PITTSBURGH — In a game that was not decided until the final play, the Steelers overcame eight turnovers, including a lost onside kick, which gave the Raiders a final opportunity to win, for a 16-10 victory.

The game was played on an icy field with temperatures in the teens and strong, gusty winds.

Oakland intercepted two passes in the first quarter but the best they could get out of them was a missed 38-yard field goal. The Steelers took advantage of the initial Raider turnover, the first of Mike Wagner's two interceptions and a 20-yard return, to get on the board with a field goal.

The Steelers missed two field-goal attempts, 44- and 48-yard tries, in a third quarter in which the Raiders committed three turnovers to the Steelers' one.

Franco Harris completed a 70-yard drive when he found the middle jammed and swung around his left side for 25 yards scoring the game's first TD on the second play of the final quarter.

Ken Stabler responded with a 60-yard, six-pass drive to reduce the Steeler lead to three again.

Another Oakland fumble, which Jack Lambert grabbed for his third recovery of the game on the Oakland 25, set up the final Steelers score. While the Steelers were running out the clock, Harris fumbled and the Raiders quickly moved into position for a 41-yard field goal. The Steelers committed their third fumble in the final five minutes of the game on the ensuing onside kickoff but time ran out on the Raiders.

(60,020)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers struck quick with a 76-yard touchdown pass from Terry Bradshaw to Frank Lewis on the game's third play en route to setting league marks for total yardage and a then-team postseason record for points, with a 40-14 win.

Terry Bradshaw played the finest game of his career, setting then-personal highs by completing 78 percent of his passes for three touchdowns.

The Steelers scored five of the first six times they had the ball and their 17-point second quarter sealed the victory.

First-half interceptions by Mike Wagner and Glen Edwards and five quarterback sacks, two by Andy Russell on successive plays, paced the defense.

However, the victory was a very costly one, which would take its toll one week later.

Both Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier suffered injuries which sidelined them for the AFC title game. Harris was hurt early in the third quarter after rushing for 132 yards. Frenchy Fuqua and Reggie Harrison picked up the slack, making large contributions rushing and receiving.

1976 AFC Championship

OAKLAND, Calif. — The Steelers and Raiders met for a fifth straight year in the playoffs and third season in a row for the AFC title.

The Raiders ended the Steelers seven-game postseason winning streak with a surprisingly strong running game and the timely passing of Ken Stabler, which they parlayed with a tenacious defense onto a 24-7 victory.

Oakland grabbed a 10-point lead on a pair of Steelers' errors. A partially blocked punt led to a field goal and an interception on a deflection that was returned to the one yard-line set up a touchdown.

Forced to throw because of injuries to Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier, neither of whom played, the Steelers fought back and on their next possession and went 75 yards with all but 16 coming through the air. However, the Raiders matched it by storming 69 yards to score with 23 seconds left in the half.

After their 63-yard scoring drive in the third quarter, the Raiders were content to play conservatively while the desperate Steelers were forced to play catch-up, something they were unable to do this day.

1977 AFC Divisional Playoff

Denver 34, Pittsburgh 21
December 24, 1977
(75,011)

DENVER — Making the same mistakes that typified their play during the regular season, the Steelers were eliminated in the opening round of the playoffs for the first time since 1973, losing to Denver 34-21.

Pittsburgh lost the football on four turnovers plus a blocked punt, which accounted for 24 of Denver's points. The blocked punt and a Franco Harris fumble set up short scoring drives of 17 and 10 yards which kept the Broncos in the game in the first half when the Steelers held a 183-44 edge in offensive yardage. Both Steelers touchdowns came on long, time-consuming drives in the second quarter as Harris ran for 82 yards in the first half with 60 of them coming during the two scoring efforts.

In the second half, the Steelers deserted their productive running game and rushed the ball just nine times with Harris getting it five times after carrying on 23 occasions in the initial 30 minutes. They were outgained by Denver, 214-121.

After stopping the Broncos four times from inside the two-yard line in the third quarter, the Steelers could not get out of the hole that led to Denver's third score, a first down pass for 30 yards.

The Steelers had one more comeback attempt left as they came from behind for the third time to even the score on a 60-yard, four-play march with all but one of the yards coming through the air.

After that, Pittsburgh got just one first down on its final three possessions and turned the ball over twice on interceptions to set up Denver's last 10 points.

The lone positive note for the Steelers was Harris becoming the first pro player to gain 1,000 yards in postseason play, pushing his total to 1,050.

1978 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 33, Denver 10
December 30, 1978
(48,921)

PITTSBURGH — Playing their first playoff game at home in three years, the Steelers advanced to the AFC Championship game for the fourth time in six years with one of their best overall performances ever in postseason play, defeating Denver, 33-10.

After falling behind 3-0, the Steelers scored touchdowns on back-to-back possessions to assume a commanding lead and were never seriously threatened thereafter.

The offense gained 425 yards, while Terry Bradshaw had a postseason career-high of 272 yards passing and was aided by the great touchdown receptions of John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, both of whom took balls away from Denver defenders in the end zone. Stallworth set a then-NFL Divisional Playoff record with his 10 catches. Franco Harris added to four NFL postseason records he already held. He increased his totals to 1,155 yards, 282 rushing attempts, five 100-yard games and 12 touchdowns.

The Pittsburgh defense was no less than devastating, completely shutting down the Broncos' running game and marking the sixth straight game in which it did not allow 100 yards rushing. This forced Denver to go to a passing game and resulted in six quarterback sacks.

Joe Greene took away the Broncos early second-half momentum when he blocked a field goal attempt. Then Stallworth and Swann settled the issue with two big catches in a 32-second span of the fourth quarter. Sandwiched between those two plays was Rick Upchurch's fumble on the kickoff following Stallworth's big play, which Dennis Winston recovered.

1978 AFC Championship

Pittsburgh 34, Houston 5
January 7, 1979
(49,417)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers won their third AFC Championship in five years with an awesome offensive and defensive display, defeating the Houston Oilers, 34-5.

The game was played in a cold, steady rain which contributed to an NFL postseason record of 12 fumbles.

The Steelers built a 14-3 lead on touchdown runs by Franco Harris (seven yards) and Rocky Bleier (17 yards). They broke the game open with a 17-point burst in the last 52 seconds of the first half by capitalizing on three Houston fumbles. Both touchdowns in this span came on Terry Bradshaw passes to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann.

The Steelers quarterback was spectacular in completing 11-of-19 attempts for 200 yards while Dan Pastorini, his counterpart, was harassed by the Pittsburgh defense and the weather. He was intercepted five times and sacked on four occasions, and the tremendous Steelers pass rush forced him to throw most of the time under severe pressure.

Rookie Earl Campbell, the NFL's leading rusher, was limited to 26 yards on 15 carries in the first half and finished the game with just 62 yards on 22 attempts.

The Steelers' dominance was best exhibited by the first half yardage totals of 287 to 54. All-Pro linebacker Jack Ham was a standout with an interception, two fumble recoveries and a sack. The Steelers enjoyed great field position most of the game that was aided by 90 yards in interception returns and 91 yards on Theo Bell's six punt returns.

1979 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 34, Miami 14
December 30, 1979
(50,214)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers were flawless in the first quarter, controlling the football for more than 13 minutes and scoring touchdowns the first three times they had the ball en route to a 34-14 victory. Miami was able to run just seven plays for a net of two yards.

Pittsburgh converted four of four third-down plays in the opening period and was successful on 11-of-14 the entire game. In directing the three early drives, Terry Bradshaw completed 7-of-9 passes.

With a big cushion, the defense never gave Miami a chance, stopping the Dolphins without a score twice in the second quarter when they had first downs inside the Pittsburgh 10-yard line. Dennis Winston's interception ended one drive and a great goal-line stand the other.

At halftime the Steelers held a 229-35 edge in yardage and a 15-4 margin in first downs. For the game, the Dolphins, a ball-control team, rushed for 25 yards on 22 carries with 21 of those yards coming in the final quarter.

It was the fourth straight postseason game in which the Steelers had scored over 30 points. Bradshaw set a personal postseason record with 21 completions, and Franco Harris was the leading rusher for the 12th time in 15 postseason games increasing his all-time lead total to 1,357 yards and scored his 15th touchdown, another postseason record. The victory was the Steelers' 15th straight at home and sixth postseason win in a row at Three Rivers Stadium.

1979 AFC Championship

Pittsburgh 27, Houston 13
January 6, 1980
(50,475)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers won their fourth AFC Championship in six years in a hard-fought, physical game over the Houston Oilers that was much closer than the 27-13 final score indicates, typifying the rivalry that exists between the AFC Central rivals.

Even though the statistics favored the Steelers, their last touchdown came in the final minute and the final score was their largest margin of the game.

Terry Bradshaw continued his spectacular postseason play, converting 13-of-19 third-down opportunities, and the defense did not allow a touchdown, holding the Oilers to just 24 yards rushing and Earl Campbell to 15 yards on 17 attempts.

Houston jumped in front when Vernon Perry stopped a promising drive with an interception which he returned 75 yards for a score. The teams traded field goals on back-to-back possessions.

Bradshaw guided his team to touchdowns on their next two chances which gave the Steelers a lead they never surrendered although it was seriously threatened late in the third quarter when the officials ruled Mike Renfro did not have possession on what appeared to be a tying touchdown pass. The Oilers settled for a field goal which the Steelers soon matched.

A fumble led to Pittsburgh's last score.

Bradshaw's two touchdown passes gave him a postseason career total of 26, an NFL record, increasing his yardage record to 3,199. Franco Harris was the leading rusher for the 13th time in 16 postseason games and increased his rushing yardage to 1,442, another NFL mark. The win was the Steelers 16th straight at home and seventh playoff win in a row at Three Rivers Stadium.

1982 AFC Tournament

San Diego 31, Pittsburgh 28
January 9, 1983
(53,546)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers ended their 50th season with one of their most bitter losses ever, a 31-28 defeat to the San Diego Chargers.

Dan Fouts threw two short touchdown passes to Kellen Winslow in the final nine minutes after the Steelers had taken an 11-point lead early in the fourth quarter.

Terry Bradshaw played one of the greatest games of his career, completing 25 of his first 28 passes, including 15 in a row, but threw two interceptions, which knocked the Steelers out of the playoffs.

The initial interception came on a first down play from the San Diego 29-yard line on the first play after the two-minute warning in the second quarter with the Steelers leading, 14-10. Bruce Laird returned the interception 35 yards and the Chargers drove 64 yards to take their first lead, 17-14.

The last and most costly interception came with 11 minutes to play and the Steelers holding a 28-17 margin. This one was returned by Jeff Allen to the Pittsburgh 29-yard line from where the Chargers scored on five plays plus an important holding penalty which nullified a Mel Blount interception.

After two Steelers first downs on the next series, John Goodson's 20-yard punt gave San Diego decent field position and they capitalized on the winning score.

The game started on a bizarre note when rookie Guy Ruff recovered James Brooks' fumble off the opening kickoff in the end zone to set an NFL record for the quickest score at the start of the game.

1983 AFC Divisional Playoff

Los Angeles 38, Pittsburgh 10
January 1, 1984
(90,334)

LOS ANGELES — For the second straight year, the Steelers were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs, losing 38-10, to the Los Angeles Raiders. The defeat was their fifth in the last six games and their sixth straight to the Raiders.

After taking the lead on an impressive 78-yard drive, which produced three first downs, the Pittsburgh offense struggled for the balance of the game.

On their first scoring series, the Steelers elected to kick a field goal rather than try for a touchdown inches from the Raider goal line. The march was highlighted by a spectacular 44-yard reception by Wayne Capers. The Raiders took the lead the next time the Steelers had the ball when Lester Hayes stepped in front of a Cliff Stoudt to Calvin Sweeney sideline pass. Los Angeles scored on its next possession and added a field goal with six seconds remaining in the first half.

The Raiders scored the first three times they had the ball in the second half with drives of 72, 58, and 65 yards, while the Steelers settled for a 58-yard scoring pass from Stoudt to John Stallworth.

It was a record-tying 10th touchdown reception for Stallworth and the eighth straight playoff game in which he had scored to extend his own NFL mark.

The attendance of 90,334 was the largest postseason crowd in NFL history other than a Super Bowl and the second largest to ever see the Steelers play.

1984 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 24, Denver 17
December 30, 1984
(74,981)

DENVER — The Steelers overcame a near-disastrous start, a blocked punt and three missed field goals to earn their first postseason win since Super Bowl XIV, a 24-17 victory over Denver.

Eric Williams' interception and 28-yard return to the two-yard line with three and a half minutes to go set up the winning touchdown, scored on a gutty two-yard plunge by Frank Pollard. Twice the Steelers came back from seven point deficits and their three scoring drives prior to the final TD averaged almost 70 yards while the Broncos, meanwhile, never traveled more than 46 yards for their 17 points.

The game opened with Mark Malone losing two fumbles in Pittsburgh's first two possessions. However, Malone rebounded from his early miscues to complete six-of-eight passes on the Steelers' two scoring drives that gave them a halftime lead, 10-7.

A blocked punt on Pittsburgh's first second half possession gave Denver the ball on the four-yard line but for the second time inside their own 10, the Steeler defense stiffened and the Broncos had to settle for a field goal. The next time the Broncos had the ball they broke the 10-10 tie with their most impressive offensive series of the game with the touchdown coming on a John Elway bullet to Steve Watson, the Denver offensive hero with 11 receptions. After a 10-yard touchdown reception by Louis Lipps on which he broke several tackles, the Broncos managed only two first downs the rest of the game.

Two plays after a Gary Anderson missed field goal attempt, Williams turned the game around again with his big interception. Pollard with 99 yards and Abercrombie with 75 had postseason career highs rushing while Gary Dunn had his first career interception in the second quarter to end a Denver threat on the four-yard line.

1984 AFC Championship

Miami 45, Pittsburgh 28
January 6, 1985
(76,029)

MIAMI — Dan Marino set AFC Championship game records with 421 yards passing and four touchdowns to lead the Dolphins to a 45-28 victory over Pittsburgh.

Eleven of Marino's 21 completions were for 20 yards or more and three were at least 40 yards, as the Steelers secondary could not contain the ultra-quick Dolphin receivers and three of their touchdown drives took less than two minutes to complete.

The Steelers controlled the ball on the ground most of the first half but after they had taken a 14-10 lead on John Stallworth's NFL record 11th touchdown reception in postseason, the Dolphins scored two touchdowns in the last 2:52 of the half and added another one on their first possession of the second half.

Following the scoring barrage, the Steelers were forced to open up their offense and stray away from their ball-control game which was very effective in the first 30 minutes and had accounted for 123 yards rushing and a four-minute edge in possession time. If there was a turning point, it came with a minute and a half left in the first half and Miami holding a 17-14 lead when Mark Malone suffered his third interception which the Dolphins quickly converted into a touchdown and a 10-point margin.

From the end of the first half to their first series of the fourth quarter, the Dolphins scored on five straight possessions. The 1,024 total yards by both teams was an AFC title game record as was the 50 first downs. Stallworth added to his touchdown reception mark with a tumbling third-quarter touchdown reception that brought the Steelers to within 10 points. Marino answered with 80 and 66-yard drives to put the game out of reach. Malone had career-highs with 20 completions and 312 yards passing.

1989 AFC Wild Card Game

Pittsburgh 26, Houston 23 (OT)
December 31, 1989
(58,306)

HOUSTON — Houston attempted and missed a 55-yard field goal on their first possession and had a punt blocked by linebacker Jerry Olsavsky on their second to set up running back Tim Worley's nine-yard touchdown run which came on a fourth-and-one situation to set the tone for a 26-23 overtime win.

Both teams then added three field goals each before the Oilers staged a fourth-quarter comeback.

Quarterback Warren Moon hit wide receiver Ernest Givins with touchdown passes of 19 and nine yards to put Houston ahead 23-16 with 6:02 left in the game. The Steelers then marched 82 yards on 11 plays, including a 22-yard reverse by wide receiver Dwight Stone, to tie the score at 23-23 with 46 seconds remaining.

In overtime, Pittsburgh got the ball first but was forced to punt after three plays, giving Houston possession at their own 45-yard line. On the Oilers' first play, running back Lorenzo White ran left and fumbled when hit by cornerback Rod Woodson, who recovered the ball at the Houston 46. Five plays later, Gary Anderson booted a 50-yard field goal to end the game at 3:26 of overtime.

Anderson's field goal broke two Steelers postseason records, for most in a game (four) and longest. Running back Merril Hoge became the second Steelers running back to rush for 100 yards in a postseason game, while the Oilers' Givins finished with 11 receptions for 136 yards and two touchdowns.

1989 Divisional Playoff

Denver 24, Pittsburgh 23
January 7, 1990
(75,868)

DENVER — The Steelers dominated Denver throughout the game before falling behind by one point with 2:27 remaining, and suffered a 24-23 loss. A fumbled snap from shotgun formation on third down led to the defeat and eliminated them from advancing to the AFC Championship game.

The Steelers produced a season-high 404 offensive yards including 180 total yards by running back Merril Hoge, but Denver marched 71 yards in nine plays on a fourth-quarter drive for the winning touchdown.

The Steelers had a lead throughout the game, opening with the first of Gary Anderson's three field goals. In the second quarter, Hoge swept left end untouched for a seven-yard touchdown run that extended the Steelers' lead to 10-0 and capped a 93-yard drive that began with a 45-yard run by Hoge.

The Broncos responded with a 12-play, 75-yard drive with running back Melvin Bratton scoring the first of his two one-yard touchdown runs.

Wide receiver Louis Lipps gave Pittsburgh a 10-point lead again with a nine-yard touchdown catch from Bubby Brister, but the Broncos tied the score at 17-17 on wide receiver Vance Johnson's 37-yard reception. Anderson's 35- and 32-yard field goals extended the Steelers' lead to six before Bratton's touchdown and the PAT put Denver ahead, 24-23.

Hoge became the first Steelers player to have consecutive 100-yard rushing games in postseason as he ran 10 times for 100 yards in the first half. Anderson set a team record with his seventh consecutive field goal in postseason, while Brister's 65.5 percent completion rate (19 of 29) was the fourth highest in team history for a game.

1992 AFC Divisional Playoff

Buffalo 24, Pittsburgh 3
January 9, 1993
(60,407)

PITTSBURGH — Ten years to the day since their last home playoff game, the Steelers fell victim to turnovers and a tough Buffalo defense in front of a then-Three Rivers Stadium-record crowd of 60,407, for a 24-3 loss.

Gary Anderson's 38-yard field goal on their first drive was the extent of Pittsburgh's scoring as Neil O'Donnell threw two interceptions, fumbled once and was sacked seven times in his first action since December 6.

The Bills' first touchdown came on a one-yard pass from Frank Reich to offensive lineman Mitch Frerotte while the Steelers lost two interceptions and a fumble in the first half to fall behind 7-3. Buffalo scored on their first three possessions of the second half while the Steelers punted twice, failed to convert a fourth-down attempt and gave the ball up on downs following an aborted field goal try on their four second-half drives.

A turning point in the game came in the middle of the third quarter when left cornerback Richard Shelton stepped in front of Don Beebe but was unable to make the interception with an open field in front of him. James Lofton caught a 17-yard scoring pass on the next play to give the Bills a 14-3 lead.

The Steelers got inside the Buffalo 20 only twice and got a field goal, but Buffalo capitalized with three touchdowns on three trips inside the Pittsburgh 20.

Thurman Thomas was held to 54 yards rushing although Kenneth Davis gained 104 yards on 10 carries. Barry Foster countered with 104 yards on 20 carries in his first postseason game.

1993 Wild Card Game

Kansas City 27, Pittsburgh 24 (OT)
January 8, 1994
(74,515)

KANSAS CITY — The Steelers never trailed until Nick Lowery's 32-yard field goal 11:03 into overtime clinched the 27-24 Kansas City win.

Scoring on their first drive, Pittsburgh held a 10-point lead at halftime before the Chiefs came back with 17 second-half points, tying the Steelers at 17-17 in the fourth quarter and at 24-24 with 1:43 left in the game.

The final tying touchdown was set up on a blocked punt by the Chiefs' Keith Cash, which was returned 31 yards by Fred Jones to the Pittsburgh nine-yard line.

From there, on fourth-and-goal, Joe Montana found Tim Barnett in the back of the end zone with his only touchdown pass.

The Steelers were then forced to punt again, and the Chiefs drove to the Pittsburgh 25 with an opportunity to take the lead, but Lowery's 43-yard field goal try was wide right with 12 seconds remaining.

In overtime, both teams punted on their first possession before Kansas City marched 66 yards in 11 plays to the Pittsburgh 14, setting up Lowery's game-winner.

Neil O'Donnell threw three touchdown passes, one each to tight ends Adrian Cooper and Eric Green as well as wide receiver Ernie Mills, while completing 23-of-42 attempts for 286 yards. Despite throwing incomplete on his first seven passes, Montana completed 28 of 42 for 276 yards and was sacked four times, three by Gerald Williams.

The Steelers converted nine of 19 third-down plays with a good mix of runs and passes, and had a possession advantage of 32:08 to 27:52 in regulation, but the Chiefs held the ball for 8:13 in overtime and limited the Steelers to just 2:50.

1994 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 29, Cleveland 9
January 7, 1995
(58,185)

PITTSBURGH — Pittsburgh scored on its first three possessions on drives of 65, 53 and 74 yards en route to a 29-9 victory at Three Rivers Stadium.

The Browns made it 17-3 with a 22-yard Matt Stover field goal. Pittsburgh got one more opportunity when Tim McKyer intercepted Vinny Testaverde on the Cleveland 27 yard-line and returned it to the six, with 46 seconds remaining in the half. Three plays later, Pittsburgh took a 24-3 halftime lead when Neil O'Donnell hit Yancey Thigpen for a nine-yard grab.

The Steelers added a 40-yard Anderson field goal in the third quarter and a safety by Carnell Lake in the fourth quarter.

Cleveland drove into Pittsburgh territory just three times in 12 possessions. The Steelers outgained Cleveland 424 yards to 186, 23 first downs to 10 and had 42:27 to 17:33 advantage in time of possession.

The victory was Pittsburgh's first playoff win in five years.

1994 AFC Championship

San Diego 17, Pittsburgh 13
January 15, 1995
(61,545)

PITTSBURGH — The Chargers used a goal-line stand in the final two minutes to deal Pittsburgh a heart-breaking 17-13 loss before a record crowd of 61,545 at Three Rivers Stadium.

Pittsburgh opened the game with a 13-play, 67-yard drive to take a 7-0 lead. Twice the Steelers advanced inside San Diego's 20-yard line but only came away with two Gary Anderson field goals.

Pittsburgh led 13-3 until midway through the third quarter when Chargers' quarterback Stan Humphries connected with Alfred Pupunu for a 43-yard score.

The Steelers, who nearly doubled San Diego's offensive output in all categories, didn't fall behind until there were less than six minutes remaining in the game. A San Diego false start penalty on Harry Swayne nullified a third-down defensive stand to give the Chargers one more chance. On third-down and in need of 14 yards, Humphries hit Tony Martin with a 43-yard score with Tim McKeyer in coverage to give the Chargers a 17-13 lead.

The Steelers began their final drive at their 17 yard-line to the Chargers' three. On fourth down and three yards, San Diego linebacker Dennis Gibson batted down the scoring strike intended for Barry Foster. San Diego controlled the clock for the game's final minute.

1995 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 40, Buffalo 21
January 6, 1996
(59,072)

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers dealt the Buffalo Bills their worst postseason loss in non-Super Bowl play with a 40-21 defeat in Three Rivers Stadium.

Pittsburgh scored on five of their seven first-half possessions, including touchdowns by John L. Williams and Ernie Mills on their first two drives. Buffalo added a Thurman Thomas touchdown at 49 seconds before the half, but Pittsburgh closed the half with Norm Johnson's third field goal to take a 23-7 halftime lead.

It seemed the game might turn into a rout when Pittsburgh marched to the Bills' four yard-line on the first possession of the second half, but the drive ended with a Greg Evans interception.

The Steelers added a record (tied) fourth field goal by Norm Johnson in the third quarter to take a 19-point lead.

Buffalo battled back with a touchdown pass from Jim Kelly to Thurman Thomas to cut the lead to less than a touchdown with over 11 minutes remaining in the game. Pittsburgh responded with a 76-yard drive that included key third-down receptions by Yancey Thigpen for 21 yards and Andre Hastings for 17 yards. Bam Morris finished off the drive with a 13-yard touchdown run.

Interceptions by Jerry Olsavsky and Levon Kirkland ended the Bills' next two drives, the latter at the Bills' 17 yard-line. Four plays later, the Steelers added a second Bam Morris touchdown and gained a 40-21 advantage at the two-minute warning.

The 40 points scored tied a then Steelers postseason game high (40, Dec. 19, 1976 at Baltimore). The offense ran 78 plays, second most all-time postseason, and the line allowed no sacks for the 12th time in postseason history.

1995 AFC Championship

Pittsburgh 20, Indianapolis 16
January 14, 1996
(61,062)

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers exorcised the demons of the 1994 AFC Championship game with a 20-16 heart-stopper over the Indianapolis Colts to advance to the Super Bowl.

For the second straight year it was a pass on the game's final play that determined Pittsburgh's Super Bowl future. A Hail Mary pass by Colts' quarterback Jim Harbaugh to Aaron Bailey was batted away by DB Randy Fuller to send the Steelers to Arizona.

The game was reminiscent of the 1995 AFC Championship game. The Steelers had a 10-6 advantage at halftime with a five-yard touchdown pass from Neil O'Donnell to Kordell Stewart in the closing seconds of the half and a first quarter Norm Johnson field goal.

The Colts' scoring came from the foot of kicker Cary Blanchard. Indianapolis added a third field goal on their opening drive in the third quarter to pull within one point.

The Steelers countered with a second Norm Johnson field goal, but found themselves behind 16-13 after Jim Harbaugh hit Floyd Turner for a 47-yard touchdown strike with 8:46 remaining in the game.

The Steelers and the Colts traded punts as the clock slipped to 3:03 and Pittsburgh took over the ball at their own 33 yard-line. After a fourth-down reception by Andre Hastings, O'Donnell hit Ernie Mills along the right sideline for a 37-yard gain to advance to the Colts' one-yard line. Two plays later, Bam Morris punched in the go-ahead touchdown.

However, the Colts weren't ready to be corralled. Starting at his own 16-yard line, Jim Harbaugh led Indianapolis to the Pittsburgh 29-yard line before throwing the "Hail Mary" pass with just five seconds left in the game.

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers overcame two first-half turnovers to score the most points in Steelers playoff history and the team's most decisive postseason win in 18 years with a 42-14 victory against Indianapolis.

The team scored the game's first 13 points and final 29 with a ground attack that ranked fourth in Steelers postseason history.

The Steelers took a 10-0 lead with Norm Johnson field goal and Kordell Stewart's one-yard touchdown scamper that was set up by a Jahine Arnold 31-yard punt return. Pittsburgh added a 50-yard Johnson field goal to start the second quarter.

Indianapolis responded with 14 unanswered points for a 14-13 halftime lead.

Pittsburgh regained the momentum on the opening drive of the second half. Starting from their own nine-yard line, the Steelers marched 91 yards in 16 plays while running 9:30 off the clock. The drive ended with a Jerome Bettis touchdown and a Stewart to John Farquhar two-point conversion.

The Steelers offense churned out 228 yards in the second half, while the defense held the Colts to 22 second-half yards and two first downs. Included in the Steelers three fourth-quarter touchdowns was Witman's 31-yard rushing touchdown which was his first NFL touchdown and second-longest postseason touchdown run in Steelers' history.

Five rushing touchdowns was a single-game postseason record. It was the fourth time in a Steeler playoff history they had a 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver in a game. The Steelers' 42 points was their highest point total in the postseason.

1996 AFC Divisional Playoff

(60,188)

FOXBORO, Mass. — The Steelers playoff hopes ended on a fog enshrouded field in Foxboro and a 28-3 defeat.

It was a game of big plays from the opening drive. Unfortunately, the Patriots made them and scored on three of their first four possessions.

Quarterback Drew Bledsoe hit Terry Glenn for a 53-yard gain against Rod Woodson on New England's first play from scrimmage. One play later, Curtis Martin made the score, 7-0.

The Steelers second possession ended with their second punt. New England used a short field to gain a 14-0 lead with a Bledsoe to Keith Byars 34-yard touchdown reception.

New England added an exclamation point when Martin broke a 78-yard touchdown run to open the second quarter. Pittsburgh's struggling offense gained just 29 yards in 13 plays in three first-quarter possessions. They fared no better in the second quarter, converting just one of seven third-down plays.

Jerome Bettis, despite two pulled groin muscles, tried to carry the ground attack. The Steelers turned a Chad Brown interception into a Norm Johnson field goal, giving them their only points of the day. But two second-half interceptions, including one that led to a third Martin touchdown, kept the Steelers from making a rally.

1997 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 7, New England 6
January 3, 1998
(61,228)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers defeated the New England Patriots for the second time in three weeks, 7-6, in the AFC Divisional Playoff.

Pittsburgh forced four turnovers, including two in the final 1:44 of the game, and advanced to the AFC Championship for the third time in four years.

The Steelers struck early when Kordell Stewart scampered around left end and raced 40 yards for a touchdown on the team's opening possession with 9:49 left in the first quarter. The drive began when rookie cornerback Chad Scott intercepted quarterback Drew Bledsoe and returned it 27 yards to the Steelers 38.

New England was limited to a pair of short field goals by Adam Vinatieri and fell two games short of a return to the Super Bowl.

Linebacker Jason Gildon recovered a pair of fumbles for the Steelers. The second recovery came after backup left end Mike Vrabel stripped Bledsoe of the ball, and Gildon pounced on it at the Pittsburgh 34 with 1:44 to play.

The Patriots got back the ball in the final seconds before linebacker Levon Kirkland intercepted a long pass by Bledsoe to seal the win.

1997 AFC Championship

(61,382)

PITTSBURGH — John Elway passed for two touchdowns in the final 1:47 of the first half to help Denver build a 24-14 lead, while the Broncos defense forced four turnovers by Pittsburgh quarterback Kordell Stewart to propel Denver to a 24-21 victory against the Steelers in the AFC Championship Game.

The Steelers, who were hosting the AFC Championship for the third time in four years under coach Bill Cowher, had a 14-7 lead after a Kordell Stewart 33-yard touchdown run in the first quarter.

Stewart was 6-of-17 for 69 yards with two interceptions in the first half. He finished 18-of-36 for 201 yards with three interceptions and a fumble.

The only score of the second half was a 15-yard touchdown pass from Stewart to Charles Johnson that pulled the Steelers within 24-21 with 2:46 left in the fourth quarter. The touchdown capped a 10-play, 79-yard drive in just 2:57.

Because Pittsburgh had all three timeouts left, Cowher opted not to attempt an on-side kick. But just after the two-minute warning on a third-and-six play, Elway drilled an 18-yard pass to tight end Shannon Sharpe to the Denver 33 with Jason Gildon in coverage. On the next play, Elway rolled right and flipped a 10-yard pass to Ed McCaffrey. Davis then broke off a 19-yard run with less than 50 seconds remaining to seal the win.

2001 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 27, Baltimore 10
January 20, 2002
(63,976)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers advanced to the AFC Championship Game by dominating the Baltimore Ravens during a 27-10 victory at Heinz Field.

Starting running back Jerome Bettis missed the game due to an adverse reaction to pain medication that he received prior to the game.

However, the Steelers' defense dominated the game, limiting Baltimore to only 22 yards rushing and 150 yards total, while intercepting Ravens quarterback Elvis Grbac three times, including two interceptions in the end zone by free safety Brent Alexander.

Steelers' cornerback Chad Scott intercepted Grbac's first pass of the game to set up Kris Brown's 21-yard field goal that gave Pittsburgh a 3-0 first quarter lead.

Pittsburgh extended their lead to 10-0 later in the quarter when running back Amos Zereoue capped a 51-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run.

Zereoue's second touchdown, also from one yard out, increased the Steelers' lead to 17-0 midway through the second quarter. Brown's 46-yard field goal on Pittsburgh's next drive gave the Steelers a 20-0 advantage with 3:46 left in the first half.

A 26-yard field goal by Baltimore kicker Matt Stover made the score 20-3 at halftime. Jermaine Lewis' 88-yard punt return for a touchdown in the third quarter pulled the Ravens to within 20-10.

Pittsburgh made the final score 27-10 when quarterback Kordell Stewart completed a 32-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Plaxico Burress early in the fourth quarter.

2001 AFC Championship Game

New England 24, Pittsburgh 17
January 27, 2002
(64,704)

PITTSBURGH — After trailing 21-3 in the third quarter, a Steelers' comeback fell short as Pittsburgh was defeated by the Patriots, 24-17, ending their Super Bowl hopes.

Despite the anticipated return of running back Jerome Bettis, the Steelers ground game never got rolling against a Patriots defense that held Pittsburgh's league leading rushing attack to a season-low 58 yards.

New England jumped out to a 7-0 lead after a penalty nullified a 64-yard Josh Miller punt and Troy Brown returned the second kick 55 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter. The Steelers responded with a 10-play, 65-yard drive that ended with Kris Brown booting a 30-yard field goal to cut the Patriots' lead to 7-3.

With two minutes left in the first half, New England quarterback Tom Brady was forced out of the game with an ankle injury after completing a 28-yard pass to Troy Brown on a key third-down play. Drew Bledsoe came in and moved the offense 40-yards in four plays, capped by an 11-yard touchdown pass to David Patten, giving the Patriots to take a 14-3 halftime lead.

Things continued to look glum for Pittsburgh when Kris Brown's 34-yard field goal attempt was blocked by defensive lineman Brian Mitchell and recovered by Troy Brown who lateraled the ball to Antwan Harris for a 49-yard return for a touchdown to give New England a 21-3 advantage.

The Steelers offense then found their rhythm, scoring on the next two possessions with touchdown runs (1, 11) by Jerome Bettis and Amos Zereoue, respectively, pulling Pittsburgh within 21-17 through three quarters.

New England kicker Adam Vinatieri's 44-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter put the Patriots up 24-17 with 11:12 left. The Steelers were forced to punt on the ensuing drive and Kordell Stewart was intercepted in their final two possessions.

2002 AFC Wild Card Game

Pittsburgh 36, Cleveland 33
January 5, 2003
(63,976)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers rallied from a 13-point, fourth-quarter deficit to defeat the Cleveland Browns, 36-33, in one of the most thrilling games in team history.

The Steelers overcame three early turnovers and several big plays by Cleveland to register the come-from-behind victory. Pittsburgh trailed 24-7 in the third quarter and 33-21 in the fourth before scoring two touchdowns in the final 3:06 to win.

The Browns led 14-0 after a touchdown run by RB William Green and a 32-yard TD pass by QB Kelly Holcomb to WR Dennis Northcutt.

Steelers' rookie WR Antwaan Randle El muffed a punt earlier that set up a Browns' score, but he rebounded to return his next punt 66 yards for a touchdown to make the score, 14-7. It was the longest postseason punt return in Steelers' history and the first punt return for a touchdown in the postseason by a Steeler.

The Browns increased their lead to 24-7 on a 31-yard field goal by K Phil Dawson and a 15-yard touchdown pass.

Steelers QB Tommy Maddox, who threw for a team postseason-record 367 yards and three touchdowns, connected with WR Plaxico Burress for a six-yard touchdown pass with 3:50 left in the third quarter to close the score to 24-14.

A 22-yard touchdown pass by Holcomb increased Cleveland's lead to 33-21 after a failed two-point conversion attempt.

Maddox led Pittsburgh on a 10-play, 77-yard drive, capped off by a five-yard TD pass to WR Hines Ward to pull within five, 33-28.

Pittsburgh forced the Browns to punt and then drove 61 yards in 1:41, culminating with a three-yard touchdown run by RB Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala. Randle El then completed a pass to Tuman for the two-point conversion to give the Steelers a 36-33 lead.

2002 AFC Divisional Playoff

Tennessee 34, Pittsburgh 31 (OT)
January 11, 2003
(68,809)

NASHVILLE — The Steelers lost a hard-fought game against the Tennessee Titans in overtime, 34-31.

The Titans jumped out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead, but the Steelers scored 20 straight points by early in the third quarter.

QB Tommy Maddox led Pittsburgh on an eight-play, 61-yard drive at the end of the second quarter and Reed's 39-yard field goal made the score 14-13 at the half.

On Tennessee's first play from scrimmage in the second half, Steelers NT Casey Hampton tackled George for a two-yard loss, forcing a fumble that was recovered by DE Aaron Smith. George received a concussion and did not return to the game.

Pittsburgh capitalized on the fumble when RB Amos Zereoue broke several tackles and raced 31 yards for a touchdown on the first play, which put it ahead 20-14.

Two Tennessee scores made it 28-20 before Maddox connected with Ward for a 21-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter to make the score 28-26. Ward tied the game with a pass to Plaxico Burress for the two-point conversion.

Reed's 40-yard field goal and a 42-yard kick by Tennessee K Joe Nedney made the score 31-31 in the fourth quarter. Nedney missed a 48-yard attempt at the end of regulation.

Tennessee got the ball in overtime and McNair completed two passes to WR Justin McCareins to put the Titans in field-goal position. Nedney missed a 31-yard attempt, but Steelers CB Dewayne Washington was flagged for running into the kicker. Nedney then converted a 26-yarder to give the Titans a 34-31 victory.

2004 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 20, New York Jets 17 (OT)
January 15, 2005
(64,917)

PITTSBURGH — A 33-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed allowed the Steelers to pull out a thrilling, 20-17, overtime victory against the New York Jets at Heinz Field.

The Steelers nearly saw their Super Bowl dreams end twice in the fourth quarter, but Jets K Doug Brien missed field goals of 47 and 43 yards in the final 2:02, sending the game into overtime tied at 17-17.

Pittsburgh took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter on a 45-yard field goal by Reed. Steelers' SS Troy Polamalu intercepted Pennington's next pass and returned it 14 yards to the Jets 25-yard line, setting up a three-yard touchdown run by RB Jerome Bettis for a 10-0 Pittsburgh lead.

The Jets tied the game in the second quarter on a field goal (42) by Brien and a 75-yard punt return by Santana Moss.

The game remained tied until late in the third quarter when Steelers QB Ben Roethlisberger was intercepted by Jets SS Reggie Tongue, who returned the ball 86 yards for a touchdown and a 17-10 New York lead.

The Jets held the lead until Roethlisberger completed a four-yard shovel pass to WR Hines Ward, tying the game at 17-17, with six minutes left in regulation.

Brien missed a 47-yard field-goal attempt with 2:02 left in regulation, but Roethlisberger was intercepted by Jets CB David Barrett, who returned it 24 yards to the Pittsburgh 37. Brien, however, missed a 43-yard attempt at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime.

After the Jets were forced to punt on their first drive in overtime, Pittsburgh regained possession at their own 13-yard line and moved the ball 72 yards on 13 plays, to the New York 15-yard line. After a New York timeout, Reed booted his 33-yard field goal to win the game.

2004 AFC Championship Game

New England 41, Pittsburgh 27
January 23, 2005
(65,242)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers dreams of advancing to the Super Bowl ended as they lost a disappointing 41-27 loss to New England in the AFC Championship Game at Heinz Field.

Three first-half Steelers' turnovers were converted into 17 New England points as the Patriots jumped out to a 24-3 lead at halftime, despite controlling the ball for only 10:19.

Steelers rookie QB Ben Roethlisberger suffered his first career loss as a starter. His first pass of the game was intercepted by New England, setting up a 48-yard Adam Vinatieri field goal.

New England capitalized on its next possession when QB Tom Brady hit WR Deion Branch for a 60-yard touchdown score.

Pittsburgh cut the lead to 10-3 on a 43-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed. The Patriots extended their lead to 17-3 on a nine-yard TD pass to WR David Givens.

The Steelers were ready to answer on their next drive, moving the ball to the New England 19. But Roethlisberger's pass was picked off by S Rodney Harrison and returned 87 yards for a touchdown.

Steelers RB Jerome Bettis scored on a five-yard touchdown run to bring Pittsburgh within 24-10 in the third. On the next drive, though, the Patriots increased the lead to 31-10 on a 25-yard touchdown run by Corey Dillon.

A 30-yard touchdown pass to WR Hines Ward and a 20-yard field goal by Jeff Reed trimmed the lead to 31-17.

Vinatieri's 31-yard field goal and a 23-yard touchdown pass to Branch extended the Patriots lead to 41-20.

Pittsburgh scored its final touchdown on a seven-yard pass to Burress, but New England ran out the clock for the victory.

2005 AFC Wild Card Game

Pittsburgh 31, Cincinnati 17
January 8, 2006
(65,870)

CINCINNATI — Pittsburgh scored 24 unanswered points to turn a 17-7 deficit into a 31-17 victory over Cincinnati in the AFC Wild Card Game at Paul Brown Stadium. The win marked the first road playoff victory for head coach Bill Cowher.

The Pittsburgh offense compiled 346 total yards led by QB Ben Roethlisberger, who tossed three touchdowns and finished with a QB rating of 148.7. RB Jerome Bettis ran for 52 yards on 10 carries (5.2 avg.) and one touchdown. WR Cedrick Wilson caught three passes for 104 yards (34.7 avg.), with one touchdown.

The Steelers defense recorded four sacks and two interceptions while holding the Bengals to just 84 yards rushing.

Cincinnati was dealt an early blow when starting QB Carson Palmer suffered a torn ACL on the first offensive play of the game. The Bengals jumped out to a 10-0 lead with a 23-yard field goal by K Shayne Graham and a 20-yard touchdown run by RB Rudi Johnson.

Pittsburgh got on the board when RB Willie Parker took a screen pass 19 yards for a touchdown, the first postseason touchdown catch by a Steelers' running back since Rocky Bleier in Super Bowl XIII (Jan. 21, 1979).

Backup QB Jon Kitna gave the Bengals another 10-point lead after he hit WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh for a seven-yard score.

Pittsburgh responded with four straight scores. Roethlisberger completed a five-yard touchdown pass to WR Hines Ward for the final score of the first half. Ward extended his streak to five consecutive postseason games with at least one touchdown and the Steelers trailed, 17-14, at halftime.

The Steelers scored on their opening drive of the second half with a five-yard touchdown run by Bettis to give Pittsburgh its first lead at 21-17. Pittsburgh extended its lead with a trick play. WR Antwaan Randle El took a direct snap and ran to his right. He stopped and threw the ball across the field to Roethlisberger, who then threw a 43-yard touchdown strike to Wilson.

James Farrior ended the next Bengals' possession by intercepting a Kitna pass. The turnover led to a 21-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed to complete the scoring. SS Troy Polamalu also intercepted a Kitna pass.

2005 AFC Divisional Playoff

Pittsburgh 21, Indianapolis 18
Jan. 15, 2006
RCA Dome (57,449)

INDIANAPOLIS — Pittsburgh advanced to its second straight AFC Championship Game with a dramatic 21-18 victory over the Indianapolis Colts at the RCA Dome. The win propelled the Steelers to their sixth appearance in the conference title game during Bill Cowher's 14 seasons as head coach for Pittsburgh and it also marked the first time a six seed advanced to the conference championship in league history.

Avenging an earlier-season setback to the Colts, Pittsburgh came out of the gates on fire by scoring on a 10-play, 84-yard drive to open the game that culminated with a six-yard touchdown pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Antwaan Randle El.

The Steelers upped their lead to 14-0 in the first quarter after Roethlisberger connected with rookie TE Heath Miller on a seven-yard score.

Pittsburgh's defense, which kept the high-scoring Indianapolis offense in check for most of the game, allowed just a field goal in the first half as they entered the half with a 14-3 advantage.

The Steelers stretched the lead to 21-3 with under two minutes remaining in the third quarter as RB Jerome Bettis dove in from one yard out. It was his eighth career postseason rushing touchdown and the fourth straight game with a rushing score.

Indianapolis finally posted a touchdown as Peyton Manning hit Dallas Clark for a 50-yard strike early in the fourth quarter, pulling the Colts to within 21-10.

Pittsburgh took over with eight minutes off the clock but came up empty on their next offensive drive. Indianapolis then used a three-yard rushing touchdown by Edgerrin James and a successful two-point conversion to make the game 21-18 with 4:24 remaining.

After punting the ball back to the Colts with 2:31 left in the game, Pittsburgh's defense appeared to have sealed the victory by pressuring Indianapolis to minus-16 yards while giving the ball back to its' offense on the two-yard line.

However, on the first play Bettis uncharacteristically fumbled and Nick Harper picked up the ball and darted to the Colts' 42-yard line before Roethlisberger made a shoestring tackle. Five plays later, Mike Vanderjagt's potential game-tying 46-yard field goal sailed wide right with 21 seconds remaining.

Pittsburgh posted five sacks on the day, including 2.5 by LB James Farrior. It limited the Colts to just 58 yards rushing.

Roethlisberger became the first quarterback in NFL history to reach the conference championship game in each of his first two seasons as he finished 14-of-24 for 197 yards and two touchdowns and one interception.

2005 AFC Championship

Pittsburgh 34, Denver 17
Jan. 22, 2006
INVESCO Field at Mile High (76,174)

DENVER — Pittsburgh advanced to its first Super Bowl in 10 years as it defeated the Denver Broncos, 34-17, at INVESCO Field at Mile High. The Steelers, who won their seventh straight game overall, became the first team in NFL history to win three straight road playoff games and became the first sixth seed to play in the Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh QB Ben Roethlisberger continued his outstanding postseason play as he finished 21-of-29 for 275 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions for a passer rating of 124.9. He also added a four-yard rushing touchdown late in the game.

The Steelers jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the first quarter as K Jeff Reed booted a 47-yard field goal with 4:11 left. It was the longest postseason field goal for Pittsburgh since Norm Johnson had a 50-yarder in the 1996 AFC Wild Card Game.

Roethlisberger then hit WR Cedrick Wilson on a 12-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the second quarter to up the lead to 10-0.

After a Jason Elam field goal pulled the Broncos to within 10-3, Pittsburgh scored two times in the final two minutes of the first half to take a 24-3 halftime lead. RB Jerome Bettis scored from three yards out and WR Hines Ward hauled in a 17-yard pass from Roethlisberger with seven seconds left.

Denver used a 30-yard pass from Jake Plummer to Ashley Lelie with 3:36 left in the third quarter to trim the Steelers' advantage to 24-10. However, Reed came right back with a 42-yard field goal on the next possession to make it a 27-10 lead with 13:38 left in the game.

Mike Anderson scored on a three-yard run with just under eight minutes left to bring Denver to within 10 points (27-17), but Roethlisberger's four-yard touchdown sealed the victory for Pittsburgh.

Wilson finished with a game-high five catches for 92 yards while Ward added five receptions for 59 yards. WR Antwaan Randle El also pulled in four catches for 52 yards.

Pittsburgh held the ball for 36:07 but was outgained on the ground 97-90. The Steelers finished with 358 total yards to the Broncos' 308.

CB Ike Taylor and LB Larry Foote each collected an interception for the Pittsburgh defense, while DE Brett Keisel posted two sacks. LB Joey Porter added one sack and also forced a fumble by Plummer.

The Steelers finished the game with an astounding 63 percent (10 of 16) conversion rate on third down.

2007 AFC Wild Card Game

Jacksonville 31, Pittsburgh 29
Jan. 5, 2008
Heinz Field (63,629)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers came back from an 18-point deficit in the fourth quarter but eventually fell to the visiting Jacksonville Jaguars, 31-29, in the AFC Wild Card Game at Heinz Field. The loss snapped a four-game postseason winning streak for Pittsburgh and it marked the fourth straight loss to the Jaguars overall.

Pittsburgh jumped out to a 7-0 lead on its first drive as RB Najeh Davenport ran for his first of two one-yard touchdowns on the night. However, on the ensuing kickoff the Jaguars' RB Maurice Jones-Drew returned it 96 yards to the Steelers' three and RB Fred Taylor scored one play later to knot the score at 7-7.

Three first-half interceptions by QB Ben Roethlisberger dug Pittsburgh into a 21-7 halftime deficit. The Steelers would then fall behind 28-10 entering the fourth quarter before igniting the rally.

Roethlisberger found WR Santonio Holmes for a 37-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the final quarter to cut the lead to 28-17.

After a three-and-out by Jacksonville, Roethlisberger again engineered a scoring drive on the next possession as he hit TE Heath Miller for a 14-yard touchdown with 10:25 remaining in the game. A failed two-point conversion made the score 28-23.

CB Ike Taylor then intercepted a David Garrard pass on the second play of the ensuing Jaguars possession before Davenport pushed his way into the end zone for his second score of the night at the 6:21 mark of the fourth quarter.

Both teams were unable to score on the next two drives, which gave Jacksonville the ball back with 2:38 to go in the game. The Jaguars eventually marched down to the Steelers' seven-yard line, thanks in large part to a 32-yard run by Garrard on a fourth-and-two play earlier in the drive. K Josh Scobee booted the game-winning 25-yard field goal with 37 seconds left in the contest.

WR Hines Ward had a standout game for the Steelers by catching 10 passes for a playoff career-high 135 yards (13.5 avg.). Miller added eight catches for 85 yards and a touchdown.

Rookie LB LaMarr Woodley posted a team-high two sacks as the Steelers held Jacksonville to just 239 yards of total offense.

2008 AFC Divisional Playoff Game

Pittsburgh 35, San Diego 24
Jan. 11, 2009
Heinz Field (63,899)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers advanced to their fourth AFC Championship Game in eight seasons as they defeated the San Diego Chargers 35-24 in an AFC Divisional contest at Heinz Field. Pittsburgh advanced to its 14th career AFC Championship Game with the win.

San Diego struck first on the opening possession of the game, covering 75 yards in only four plays, taking barely two minutes off the game clock. WR Vincent Jackson got behind Steelers' CB Ike Taylor and hauled in a 41-yard touchdown reception to give the Chargers a 7-0 lead.

Steelers' WR Santonio Holmes evened the score when he returned a punt 67 yards for a score. San Diego retook the lead, 10-7, courtesy of a 42-yard field goal by K Nate Kaeding.

RB Willie Parker gave the Steelers a 14-10 lead that they would never relinquish with 40 seconds remaining in the first half when he ran into the end zone around left end on a three-yard touchdown scamper.

The Steelers stretched that lead to 21-10 as they drove 77 yards in 13 plays, taking 7:56 off the clock with their opening possession of the third quarter. QB Ben Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller on an eight-yard touchdown reception to cap the drive.

RB Gary Russell swelled the lead to 28-10 when he plunged across the goal-line from one-yard out in the beginning of the fourth quarter.

San Diego scored two touchdowns, a four-yard reception by WR Legedu Naanee and a 62-yard reception by RB Darren Sproles, sandwiched around a 16-yard touchdown run by Parker, his second score of the evening, to conclude the scoring in favor of the Steelers, 35-24.

Roethlisberger had a very efficient game, completing 17-of-26 passes for 181 yards with one touchdown and a passer rating of 98.4. He improved to 6-2 (.750 pct.) in the playoffs. Parker recorded his first career 100-yard rushing performance in the postseason with 146 yards on 27 attempts (5.4 avg.) with two touchdowns. WR Hines Ward had another big postseason performance with four receptions for 70 yards (17.5 avg.), including a long reception of 41 yards.

Defensively, the Steelers sacked Rivers four times, with LB LaMarr Woodley leading the charge with two sacks. LB James Harrison and DE Brett Keisel had the other two Steelers' sacks. LB Larry Foote had a third-quarter interception, the second of his postseason career.

2008 AFC Championship Game

Pittsburgh 23, Baltimore 14
Jan. 18, 2009
Heinz Field (65,350)

PITTSBURGH — The Steelers put themselves in position to become the first NFL franchise to win six Vince Lombardi Trophies when they face the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII on February 1. Pittsburgh earned their second trip to the Super Bowl in four seasons by defeating the Baltimore Ravens 23-14 in the AFC Championship Game at Heinz Field.

Pittsburgh struck first following the opening kickoff, covering 50 yards in seven plays, the key play being a 45-yard pass from QB Ben Roethlisberger to WR Hines Ward. K Jeff Reed connected from 34 yards out to make it 3-0 in favor of Pittsburgh.

Reed would increase the Pittsburgh lead to 6-0 when he nailed his second field goal, this time a 42-yarder, following an interception by Steelers' CB Deshea Townsend.

The Steelers faced a third-and-nine situation from their own 36-yard line barely a minute into the second quarter when Roethlisberger and WR Santonio Holmes teamed up on a 65-yard scoring strike that put the Steelers ahead 13-0.

Baltimore got on the scoreboard with 2:40 remaining in the first half when RB Willis McGahee ran into the end zone from three yards out to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 13-7.

Reed converted his third field goal of the afternoon, a 46-yarder, with 3:38 left to play in the third quarter to increase the Steelers' lead to 16-7. McGahee's one-yard run with 9:29 to play in regulation allowed Baltimore to creep within two points of the lead, 16-14.

Steelers' S Troy Polamalu ended any thoughts Baltimore had of completing the comeback when he intercepted a QB Joe Flacco pass and took it 40 yard into the end zone to clinch a 23-14 Steelers' victory.

Roethlisberger led the Steelers offensively, completing 16-of-33 passes for 255 yards with one touchdown for a passer rating of 84.8. RB Willie Parker rushed 24 times for 47 yards (2.0 avg.). Holmes caught two passes for 70 yards (35.0 avg.) and one touchdown.

Defensively, the Steelers sacked Flacco three times, including two by LB LaMarr Woodley, his third consecutive postseason game with two-sacks, and one by DE Aaron Smith. Along with Polamalu and Townsend, S Tyrone Carter had the Steelers' other interception. S Ryan Clark forced a fumble near the end of regulation which was recovered by LB Lawrence Timmons.

2010 AFC Divisional Playoff Game

Pittsburgh 31, Baltimore 24
Jan. 15, 2011
Heinz Field (64,879)

PITTSBURGH — Down 14 points at halftime, the Steelers rallied to score 24 second-half points to beat the Baltimore Ravens in the AFC Divisional Playoff Game. With the victory, Pittsburgh improved to 3-0 all-time against the Ravens in the postseason. The Steelers advanced to their 15th AFC Championship game since 1970 and for the fifth time since 2001.

The Steelers got off to a hot start as RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from one-yard out on the Steelers' first drive of the game. It was Mendenhall's first career postseason rushing touchdown. The Ravens responded with a 10-play drive that was capped off with a 14-yard touchdown run by RB Ray Rice.

The Ravens went up 14-7 when DE Cory Redding returned QB Ben Roethlisberger's fumble 13 yards for a touchdown. And following another Steelers' turnover, QB Joe Flacco found TE Todd Heap for a four-yard touchdown and a 21-7 Ravens' lead at halftime.

Early in the third quarter the Steelers defense took over the game, forcing turnovers on three consecutive Ravens' possessions. After a fumble by Rice, Roethlisberger found TE Heath Miller for a nine-yard score to cut the lead 21-14. S Ryan Clark then posted his first career postseason interception, picking off Flacco to set the Steelers up in Ravens' territory. Roethlisberger then found WR Hines Ward for an eight-yard touchdown and the game was tied 21-21. Roethlisberger finished the game with 226 yards passing with two touchdowns and no interceptions.

Another Ravens fumble led to K Shaun Suisham's 35-yard field goal, which gave the Steelers a 24-21 lead. But the Ravens tied the game on K Billy Cundiff's 24-yard field goal late in the fourth quarter. The Steelers took over with less than four minutes left in the game, and they faced a third-and-19 from their own 38-yard line. Roethlisberger found rookie WR Antonio Brown streaking down the sideline for a 58-yard completion to set up Mendenhall's game-winning one-yard touchdown run, his second of the game.

The Steelers defense limited the Ravens to just 126 yards, the second-lowest total in team postseason history. The defense had five sacks, including three by LB James Harrison, forced three turnovers and held the Ravens to just 28 yards in the second half.

2010 AFC Championship Game

Pittsburgh 24, New York Jets 19
Jan. 23, 2011
Heinz Field (66,662)

PITTSBURGH — The Pittsburgh Steelers advanced to their eighth Super Bowl with a 24-19 victory over the New York Jets in the AFC Championship at Heinz Field. The eight trips to the Super Bowl are tied for the most in NFL history with the Dallas Cowboys, and the Steelers' eight wins in an AFC Championship Game are the most in conference history.

The Steelers grabbed a 7-0 lead on the opening drive of the game as RB Rashard Mendenhall capped off the 15-play drive with a one-yard rushing touchdown. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 121 yards rushing, which is the sixth-most in team postseason history.

K Shaun Suisham added to the Steelers' lead with his 20-yard field goal in the second quarter to make it 10-0, and with two minutes left in the half, QB Ben Roethlisberger scored on a two-yard touchdown run to give the Steelers a 17-0 lead. It was Roethlisberger's third career postseason rushing touchdown.

On the Jets' ensuing drive, CB Ike Taylor posted a sack and forced fumble, both career firsts in the postseason, and CB William Gay returned the fumble 19 yards to make it 24-0. It was Gay's first career postseason touchdown and the first defensive touchdown for Pittsburgh in the postseason since LB James Harrison's 100-yard interception return for touchdown in Super Bowl XLIII.

The Jets got on the board just prior to halftime when K Nick Folk connected from 42 yards out to trim the lead to 24-3. On the Jets' first drive of the second half, QB Mark Sanchez found WR Santonio Holmes for a 45-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead to 24-10. Following a goal-line stand by the Steelers' defense, Roethlisberger fumbled the first snap and was tackled in the end zone for a safety.

On the Jets' next drive, Sanchez found WR Jericho Cotchery for a four-yard touchdown to make it 24-19 with three minutes left in the game. The Steelers converted on two key third-downs on their ensuing drive, including the game-winning first down reception by WR Antonio Brown to seal their second AFC Championship in the last three seasons.

Pittsburgh improved to 5-1 in the postseason under Head Coach Mike Tomlin with the victory. Tomlin joined Hall of Famer Joe Gibbs as the only head coaches to reach two Super Bowls in their first four seasons as a head coach.

Super Bowl IX

Pittsburgh 16, Minnesota 6
January 12, 1975
(80,997)

NEW ORLEANS — The Steelers made their first appearance in the Super Bowl and captured their first NFL Championship with a 16-6 victory.

The veteran Vikings, meanwhile, had been to the Super Bowl twice before. The Vikings had a savvy leader in quarterback Fran Tarkenton. The Steelers had a strong defense but their quarterback, Terry Bradshaw, was unproven.

The first half was dominated by both defenses. Pittsburgh concentrated on the middle of the Minnesota defensive line. One defensive tackle, Ernie Holmes, played over Vikings' center Mick Tingelhoff, while the other tackle, Joe Greene, lined up at an angle pointed directly at Tingelhoff. Holmes sometimes took on the Vikings' center directly, allowing Greene to knife through and pursue Tarkenton. At other times, Greene would smash into Tingelhoff while Holmes looped behind him.

The only score in the first half was a safety registered by the Pittsburgh Steelers. Fran Tarkenton fumbled a handoff to Dave Osborn, scrambled to recover the ball in the end zone, and was downed by Pittsburgh defensive end Dwight White.

Leading 2-0, Pittsburgh kicked to Minnesota to open the second half and the Vikings' Bill Brown fumbled and Marv Kellum recovered for Pittsburgh at the Minnesota 30. The Steelers took four plays to go the distance, with Franco Harris taking the ball in from the 9.

Harris was named game MVP. He ran for 158 yards on 34 tries, both new highs for the Super Bowl, and Rocky Bleier added 65 yards on 17 carries. Minnesota, meanwhile, managed only 17 yards rushing.

Denied on the ground, the Vikings weren't much better in the air. Tarkenton, under constant pressure from Greene, Holmes, White, and L.C. Greenwood, completed only 11-of-26 attempts for 102 yards—an average of fewer than four yards per pass.

Despite their dominance, Pittsburgh's 9-0 lead was far from safe, and it narrowed to 9-6 in the final quarter when Matt Blair blocked Bobby Walden's punt, and Terry Brown recovered in the end zone.

After that touchdown, Pittsburgh put the game on ice with a drive that began on its 34. The big play of the drive was a 30-yard toss from Bradshaw to Larry Brown, who later scored the final TD.

Soon after the ensuing kickoff, Pittsburgh's Mike Wagner intercepted a Tarkenton pass, and the Steelers held possession until the game was nearly over.

Super Bowl X

Pittsburgh 21, Dallas 17
January 18, 1976
(80,197)

MIAMI — What were, at the time, the two most popular teams in the NFL met in Super Bowl X, and the contrast between their styles was as great as the hue of their jerseys.

The glitzy, white-clad Dallas Cowboys—"America's Team"—combined a high-tech offense and a state-of-the-art Flex Defense to put on a dazzling show each Sunday. They were easy to like, and for once, they even had something of an underdog aura, having reached the Super Bowl as a Wild Card team. The black-clad Pittsburgh Steelers, out to defend their Super Bowl victory of the year before, lived by a Steel-hard defense occasionally spelled by a grind-it-out running attack that would have been at home in the NFL of the 1930s.

The Cowboys struck first when Roger Staubach zeroed in on Drew Pearson for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

Before the end of the quarter, Pittsburgh evened the score on a seven-yard pass from Terry Bradshaw to tight end Randy Grossman. Setting up the score was a 32-yard pass to Lynn Swann, whose health was questionable because of a concussion he had suffered in the AFC Championship Game. Swann outleaped a Dallas defender, then magically kept both feet inside the sideline to make his catch.

Dallas reclaimed the lead at 10-7 only 15 seconds into the second quarter when Toni Fritsch booted a 36-yard field goal.

Later, Pittsburgh's Roy Gerela, playing at less than 100 percent because of a cracked rib he suffered making a tackle on the opening kickoff, shanked a field-goal try and Dallas went to the locker room with a 10-7 lead.

Defense continued to dominate in the scoreless third quarter. Pittsburgh sacked Staubach seven times during the game and forced him to scramble on numerous occasions. Moreover, they pressured him into an uncharacteristic 3 interceptions.

One of the interceptions set up another field-goal try by Gerela, but he pulled it left from 33 yards. Dallas safety Cliff Harris mockingly patted him on the helmet, only to be unceremoniously dumped on his hip pads by irate Pittsburgh linebacker Jack Lambert. The inspired Steelers dominated after that.

In the fourth quarter, Steelers reserve fullback Reggie Harrison blocked Mitch Hoopes's punt. The ball rolled through the end zone for a safety to cut the Cowboys' lead to 10-9. Gerela, who'd donned a corset to protect his ribs, regained his kicking touch with field goals of 36 and 18 yards to put the Steelers in front 15-10.

With 3:02 left in the game, Bradshaw lofted a long pass to game MVP Swann, who caught the ball at the five and took it over the goal line to complete a 64-yard lightning strike. Swann finished the day with 161 yards on four catches, a 40.3 average-per-catch. Gerela missed the extra point.

It took Staubach only 1:14 to get the touchdown back, completing a drive with a 34-yard bulls-eye to Percy Howard—the only pass Howard caught during his entire career.

Terry Hanratty replaced Bradshaw, still woozy from the hit suffered after his touchdown pass to Swann, but the Steelers were stalled on a fourth-and-9 at the Dallas 41 with almost a minute and a half to go. Coach Noll feared a blocked kick and called for a Rocky Bleier run that gained only 2 yards. Noll was gambling that his defense could stop the Cowboys.

Trailing only 21-17, Staubach had the ball back with more time than he usually needed to negotiate 61 yards. The Cowboys reached Pittsburgh's 38. With five seconds left, Staubach launched his final pass into the end zone. Steelers Mike Wagner batted the ball, which was caught by the Steelers, Glen Edwards and the Steelers had their second consecutive Super Bowl victory.

Super Bowl XIII

Pittsburgh 35, Dallas 31
January 21, 1979
(78,656)

MIAMI — This was more than just the first rematch in Super Bowl history: It re-staged what many still consider the most enjoyable and dramatic Super Bowl battle to that point. Opportunity—recognizing it and capitalizing on it—was the theme. Failure to embrace it would play a hand too. It was the Steelers, though, who managed a 35-31 victory.

Dallas had its chances. The Cowboys took a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when linebacker Mike Hegman simply took the ball away from Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw and ran 37 yards to score. But Bradshaw countered immediately with a 75-yard touchdown strike to John Stallworth.

In the third quarter, trailing 21-14, Dallas marched from its 42 to the Steelers' 10. On third-and-three, Cowboys quarterback Roger Staubach saw tight end Jackie Smith alone in the end zone. Smith slipped and fell reaching for Staubach's pass and Dallas settled for a 27-yard field goal.

Pittsburgh scored two touchdowns early in the fourth quarter—a 22-yard run by Franco Harris and an 18-yard pass from Bradshaw to Swann. Harris' score followed a pass-interference call against Dallas cornerback Benny Barnes, who was covering Swann. The mistake cost the Cowboys 33 yards. Dallas did score touchdowns with 2:27 and 22 seconds to play, on passes from Staubach to tight end Billy Joe Dupree and wide receiver Butch Johnson, but Pittsburgh held on to win, 35-31.

With the victory, the Steelers became the first team to win three Super Bowls. The two teams set a Super Bowl record for points scored.

Super Bowl XIV

Pittsburgh 31, Los Angeles 19
January 20, 1980
(103,985)

PASADENA, Calif. — There was a moment of heroism and self-sacrifice when an old warrior, Los Angeles Rams defensive end Jack Youngblood, announced his intention to play in his team's first Super Bowl despite a fractured leg.

There was a rush of "What if?" euphoria as the underdog Rams took a 19-17 lead into the fourth quarter.

And there was cold reality: Pittsburgh, a team with as much patience as talent, struck quickly and surely for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and it was over. The 31-19 victory was the Steelers' fourth in the Super Bowl in only six seasons.

The signature image of Super Bowl XIV is of Steelers wide receiver John Stallworth at the Rams' 32, looking back over his head for a lofty Terry Bradshaw pass, catching it in stride just over the outstretched arms of Rams cornerback Rod Perry, and continuing into the end zone for a 73-yard touchdown.

The Steelers had taken the lead and then surrendered it in the third quarter. Bradshaw hit wide receiver Lynn Swann over the middle for a 47-yard score. The Rams came back with a 24-yard halfback pass from Lawrence McCutcheon to Ron Smith that made it 19-17 before Bradshaw-to-Stallworth put Pittsburgh ahead for good.

Los Angeles intercepted Bradshaw three times, but it was the Steelers' lone interception—by Jack Lambert—that punctuated the ending. With the score 24-19 and the Rams driving, Lambert intercepted a pass from quarterback Vince Ferragamo at the Pittsburgh 14.

For the second year in a row, Bradshaw was named the game's most valuable player after passing for 309 yards and 2 touchdowns.

Super Bowl XXX

Dallas 27, Pittsburgh 17
January 28, 1996
(76,347)

TEMPE, Ariz. — After producing 10 lopsided outcomes in its last 12 editions, the Super Bowl was due for some drama. Pittsburgh was up to the task and made a game of it, but the game turned on two interceptions by the game's Most Valuable Player, Dallas cornerback Larry Brown as the Steelers fell to the Cowboys, 27-17.

The first of Brown's interceptions came midway through the third quarter. No Steelers receiver was within 10 yards when Brown accepted Neil O'Donnell's misfired pass at the Cowboys' 38 and returned it 44 yards to the Steelers' 18. Troy Aikman's pass to Michael Irvin took Dallas to the one, and Emmitt Smith scored to give the Cowboys a 20-7 lead.

The Steelers made it 20-10 with Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal, and then recovered an onside kick. They reduced the gap to 20-17 when Bam Morris scored from the one with 6:36 to play. With 4:15 left, Pittsburgh had the ball again at its 32 after forcing Dallas to punt.

Two plays later, Brown intercepted O'Donnell at the Steelers' 39 and returned it to the six. Smith scored from the four two plays later, and the Cowboys had locked up their record-tying fifth Super Bowl. The Steelers never led, and Dallas scored on its first three possessions—a three-yard pass from Aikman to tight end Jay Novacek and two field goals by Chris Boniol—for a 13-0 lead. Shortly before halftime, the Steelers made it 13-7 when O'Donnell threw a six-yard touchdown pass to Yancey Thigpen.

The statistical irony of the day was that O'Donnell entered the game as the NFL's career leader in fewest interceptions per pass attempt. On the game's final play, he was intercepted for the third time.

Super Bowl XL
Pittsburgh 21, Seattle 10
Feb. 5, 2006
Ford Field (68,206)

DETROIT — Pittsburgh won its fifth Super Bowl title and its first in 26 years as it captured a 21-10 victory over the Seattle Seahawks at Ford Field. The Steelers' fifth title matched the most in NFL history, tying the San Francisco 49ers and Dallas Cowboys.

Backed by predominantly a Pittsburgh crowd, the Steelers were led by Super Bowl MVP Hines Ward, who finished with a game-high 123 receiving yards on five catches (24.6 avg.) with one touchdown.

Pittsburgh struggled offensively in the first quarter as it did not gain a single first down, but found itself down only 3-0 after Seattle's Josh Brown booted a 47-yard field goal with 22 seconds remaining in the opening period.

The Steelers' offense came to life briefly on their first drive of the second quarter, including a 18-yard end-around run by Ward, but it was stalled as QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by the Seahawks' S Michael Boulware.

However, Pittsburgh's defense, which gave up just three points in both of its two previous games in the first half, continued to buckle down and halt any Seattle chances of extending its lead.

The Steelers finally got on the board late in the second quarter as Roethlisberger followed a block by RB Jerome Bettis and dove into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown run, giving Pittsburgh a 7-3 halftime lead. It was his second postseason rushing touchdown and the first-ever by a Steelers' quarterback in a Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh came out of halftime and stretched its lead to 14-3 on the second play of the half as RB Willie Parker darted 75 yards for a score, just 22 seconds into the third quarter. The 75-yard run was the longest in Super Bowl history, surpassing L.A. Raider Marcus Allen's 74-yard run against Washington in Super Bowl XVIII.

After a missed field goal by Brown on Seattle's first drive of the second half, the Steelers appeared on the verge of breaking the game open as they drove down to the Seahawks' seven-yard line on the ensuing drive. However, Roethlisberger threw an interception at the four-yard line to Kelly Herndon, which he returned 76 yards to the Pittsburgh 20. Three plays later Seattle scored on a 16-yard pass from QB Matt Hasselbeck to TE Jerramy Stephens to cut the lead to 14-10.

The Seahawks had an opportunity to take the lead early in the fourth quarter before Hasselbeck was picked off by CB Ike Taylor at the Steelers' five-yard line. Taylor finished with a team-best seven tackles.

Pittsburgh all but sealed the game four plays later on a gadget play, which became a part of the Steelers' arsenal throughout the season. WR Antwaan Randle El took a reverse handoff from Parker and threw a 43-yard strike to Ward, pushing the Pittsburgh lead to 21-10 with just under nine minutes remaining in the game. Randle El became the first wide receiver in Super Bowl history to throw for a touchdown.

The Steelers' defense clamped down on the final two Seattle possessions while the offense milked the clock for over four minutes in the final minutes of the game to post the victory.

Roethlisberger became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl and finished 9-of-21 for 123 yards. Parker finished with a team-high 93 yards on 10 carries, while Bettis added 43 yards on 14 rushes.

Pittsburgh's defense racked up three sacks, including one each from CB Deshea Townsend, LB Clark Haggans and NT Casey Hampton.

Super Bowl XLIII

Pittsburgh 27, Arizona 23
Feb. 1, 2009
Raymond James Stadium (70,774)

TAMPA — Trailing by three points with only 2:30 left in the fourth quarter, QB Ben Roethlisberger led the Steelers on an eight -play, 78-yard scoring drive, punctuated by a six-yard touchdown pass to WR Santonio Holmes to clinch the Steelers' NFL record sixth Lombardi Trophy with a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

Pittsburgh, which led most of the evening, struck first after Arizona deferred the opening kick. Roethlisberger and WR Hines Ward connected for a 38-yard gain on the Steelers' second play from scrimmage, setting up an eventual 18-yard field goal by K Jeff Reed to make it 3-0.

RB Gary Russell increased that lead to double digits, 10-0, when he plunged in from one-yard out early in the second quarter. Arizona quickly answered that score as QB Kurt Warner hit TE Ben Patrick in the back of the end zone on a one-yard scoring strike to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 10-7.

Arizona appeared as though they were going to take their first lead as the first half was set to expire, but LB James Harrison swung momentum back into Pittsburgh's favor by intercepting Warner at the goal-line, racing 100 yards behind several outstanding blocks by his teammates, and diving into the end zone with two Cardinals on his back for the longest play in Super Bowl history, and a 17-7 Steelers advantage at the half.

A 21-yard field goal by Reed capped a 16-play, 79-yard drive which took 8:39 off the third quarter clock, upping the Steelers' lead to 20-7.

Arizona got back onto the scoreboard midway through the fourth quarter as Warner tossed another one-yard score, this time to WR Larry Fitzgerald, cutting the Steelers' lead to 20-14. A costly holding penalty in the end zone against Steelers' C Justin Hartwig gave the Cardinals a safety, further decreasing the Steelers' advantage to 20-16.

On the second play following the ensuing free kick, Warner found Fitzgerald on a 64-yard scoring strike through the middle of the Steelers' defense to give Arizona its first lead of the night, 23-20.

Roethlisberger and the Steelers were down, but not out. Backed up to their own 12-yard line following a holding call, Roethlisberger promptly completed four-of-six passes, three to Holmes, including a 40-yarder that moved the ball to the Arizona six. On second-and-goal, Roethlisberger scrambled to his right and threaded a perfect pass through three defenders, where Holmes kept his toes in bounds for a six-yard touchdown reception and a 27-23 Steelers' lead with 42 seconds remaining.

Arizona had one more chance, but LB LaMarr Woodley sacked Warner, forcing a fumble recovered by DE Brett Keisel, and the Steelers had their second championship in four seasons.

Holmes was named the game's MVP after catching nine passes for 131 yards (14.6 avg.) and the game-winning touchdown reception. He caught four passes for 73 yards on the winning drive. Roethlisberger finished 21-of-30 for 256 yards with one touchdown and one interception for a passer rating of 93.2.TE Heath Miller caught five passes for 57 yards (11.4 avg.).

Defensively, Woodley recorded both Steelers' sacks, giving him two sacks in each of his four postseason games, an NFL record.

Super Bowl XLV

Green Bay 31, Pittsburgh 25
Feb. 6, 2011
Cowboys Stadium (103,219)

ARLINGTON, Texas — The Steelers could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell short in their quest for their seventh Super Bowl victory, losing to the Green Bay Packers 31-25 in Super Bowl XLV.

The Packers struck first when QB Aaron Rodgers found WR Jordy Nelson for a 29-yard touchdown pass late in the first quarter to give Green Bay the 7-0 lead. Only 24 seconds later, Steelers' QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by S Nick Collins, who returned it 37 yards for a touchdown to give the Packers a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Steelers got on the board early in the second quarter when K Shaun Suisham connected from 33 yards to cut the Packers' lead to 14-3. On the Steelers' next possession, Roethlisberger was picked off again. On the Packers' ensuing drive, Rodgers found WR Greg Jennings for a 21-yard touchdown to put Green Bay ahead 21-3.

The Steelers though would cut the lead to 21-10 when WR Hines Ward caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger late in the first half. Ward finished the game with seven catches for 78 yards and one touchdown.

Pittsburgh cut the lead to 21-17 in the third quarter when RB Rashard Mendenhall scored from eight yards. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 63 yards rushing and one touchdown.

The Steelers' defense forced the Packers to punt on every third-quarter possession, and the offense looked to take the lead. However, on the first play of the fourth quarter, Mendenhall fumbled, the Packers marched down the field, and Rodgers found Jennings again, this time for an eight-yard score, increasing their lead to 28-17.

The Steelers, however, responded on their ensuing posession as Roethlisberger found WR Mike Wallace for a 25-yard touchdown pass, and with a two-point conversion, the Steelers were only down 28-25.

On the Packers' next drive, K Mason Crosby connected from 23 yards out to give Green Bay a six-point lead. The Steelers still had time, taking over with two minutes left in the game, but they failed to convert a fourth-and-five from their own 33-yard line.
